Reds Take U.S. Fire On Both Sides of DMZ

SAIGON (AP) — Nearly 100 U. S. B52 bombers and a naval task force of more than a dozen cruisers and destroyers blasted North Vietnamese positions on both sides of the demilitarized zone today in some of the heaviest bombardments of the war.

The raids were in support of a 20,000- man South Vietnamese counteroffensive on the northern front. They had the two-fold objective of destroying North Vietnamese troops and supplies already on the battleground and cutting off reinformcements and war materials reportedly moving south.

The Saigon command reported light fighting on the edges of Quang Tri, the provincial capital which fell to the North Vietnamese May 1. It said South Vietnamese paratroopers driving from the East had inched their way to within 200 to 300 yards of the Citadel, the 19th century fortress in the heart of the city.

A dozen B52s struck north of the demilitarized zone on both sides of the port city of Dong Hoi against elements of two North Vietnamese divisions. U. S. military sources said the troops were on the move southward, presumably to join two badly battered divisions in Quang Tri province.

More than 80 giant Stratofortresses struck to the North, West, South and Southwest of Quang Tri city, dropping about 2,500 tons of bombs on North Vietnamese positions.

The U. S. Navy said the destroyer Shelton destroyed nearly 30 North Vietnamese emplacements and triggered 10 secondary explosions in bombardment near Quang Tri city. Other ships of the 13-vessel task force firing from offshore inclued the guided missile cruiser Oklahoma City, flagship of the 7th Fleet, and the destroyer escort Hepburn.

Another task force made up of the destroyers Robison, Hammer, Warrington and Hull bombarded transhipment points and storage areas above the DMZ. the 7th Fleet said the Hull and Robison also destroyed two boatloads of supplies taken off freighters - presumed to be Chinese - at a point southwest of Hon La island, about 30 miles northwest of Dong Hoi. The freighters were not attacked.

The U. S. Command reported that American fighter - bombers flew more than 240 strikes against North Vietnam on Sunday. All of the raids were well below Hanoi in the southern half of the country.

4 Hurt In Area Accidents

The highway patrol reported five automobile accidents occurred in the area on Sunday, leaving four persons injured.

Silas J. Kinder, 75, of Lemay escaped injury when his car was crowded off the road and struck a utility pole on Highway 25 one and one-half miles north of Dutchtown at 8:40 a.m.

At 7:30 a.m. on Route J three miles west of Malden, an auto driven by Walter Weeks, 77, of Lilbourn went out of control and skidded into a bridge railing. Weeks' wife Eula was injured and taken to a Malden clinic.

Joe Leonard Martins, 41, of Poplar Bluff received face and head injuries when his car ran off the road and struck a bridge on Highway 67 four and one-half miles south of Poplar Bluff. The accident occurred at 2:05 a.m. Martins was taken to Veterans Administration Hospital in Poplar Bluff.

Richard Weeks, 36, of Lilbourn received severe facial cuts in a two-car mishap at 1 a.m. Sunday on Highway 61 near Howardville. A convertible driven by Fred Parson, Jr., 24, of St. Louis had slowed to make a turn and was struck in the rear by the Weeks' vehicle.

In another two-car accident, Keith M. Minton, Jr., 22, of Dexter received facial cuts and bruises when the car in which he was a passenger collided head on with a pickup truck.

At 4:15 p.m. on Route ZZ in Stoddard County five miles southwest of Dexter, the pickup, driven by Okle David Swift, 68, of Dexter Route Three, had stopped to make a left turn when Robert Clinton Williams, 23, of Gilmore, Ark., drove his auto over the crest of a hill and hit the truck.

—King To File Suit—

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — State Rep. R.J. "Bus" King said he would file suit with the Missouri Supreme Court today to challenge the qualifications of one of his opponents in the Aug. 8 primary for the Republican nomination for governor, State Auditor Christopher S. "Kit" Bond.

King noted that the Jefferson City Post-Tribune last week reported that Bond had filed an affidavit of residency in Georgia in 1964 to take a bar exam. Bond was working at the time in Atlanta as a clerk in the federal appeals court.

Missouri law requires that a governor must have lived in the state for ten years prior to his election. The same requirement applies for auditor.

Bond, in a statement Sunday, said:

"Gov. (Warren) Hearnes tried unsuccessfully to challenge my residency for auditor. After I was elected the governor and his forces tried everything else they could to thwart our efforts to give citizens of Missouri a thorough, professional audit. Our budget was cut, there were attempts to abolish the office of state auditor and our examiners were harrassed and barred from making certain audits.

"Now, in the closing days of the primary campaign for governor the question is being made again in an abvious attempt to cloud the election issues.

"I am disappointed that Bus King is allowing himself to be used and is going to file suit against me. However, I feel my position is legally sound and I am confident the courts will uphold it."

Fire Damages Home In New Madrid

NEW MADRID — A fire Saturday at 9 p.m., believed to have been started by lightning, heavily damaged the interior and furnishings of the Robert B. Hedgepeth home at 1314 Davis Street.

The Hedgepeths were away from home, and the fire was discovered by a neighbor, Mrs. Dixie Leonberger.

Firemen were called at 7:50 a.m. today to 620 Russell St. where a pickup truck was on fire. The blaze was quickly extinguished and little damage was reported.

Driver Arrested On Four Counts

Harold D. King, 824 William Street, was arrested Sunday night for driving without a license, careless and imprudent driving, driving while intoxicated and leaving the scene of an accident.

According to police, King ran his car into a light pole in front of Murray Lane Baptist Church. He drove off without using his lights and was spotted by Officer Bill Smith, who had been called to the scene of the accident.

King drove erratically around town, forcing several cars to swerve to avoid a collision while Smith followed with his flashing light and siren on, unable to make King stop.

Finally King turned onto Branum Street from South West and rammed into another light pole and was overtaken and arrested by Smith. He refused to take a breathalyzer test.

Other arrests included:

Charles William Heavener, 107 North Handy, disorderly conduct, and Paul Daryle Summerfield, 303 Pine in East Prairie, disorderly conduct and curfew violation. Both were arrested after they threw rocks at a passing police car in front of Joker's Lounge at 2005 East Malone.

Agnes L. Cunningham of Bertrand was charged with careless and imprudent driving; Ted X. Spencer, 213 - Young, careless and imprudent driving; and Clifford Ray Flippo, 203 South Handy, peace disturbance.

At Child Care Center

Working Mothers Find Help

By BARBARA HARRIS

As many as 40 children of low-income, working parents in the Sikeston area are currently reaping benefits of minimum- cost, quality day care.

February 1972 marked the third birthday for Sikeston's Child Development Center. The center, which has been financed by a variety of organizations, is a non-profit organization now being funded under Title IV of the Social Security Act from the federal Department of Health, Education and Welfare. It is located at 229 Westgate.

The center is operated entirely by a local board of interested citizens and parents and provides enriching educational experiences and developmental training beyond that available in the child's own environment.

Day car includes an unregimented choice of educational play activities; a hot noon dinner and a morning afternoon snacks; art, music and craft supervision; use of all playground equipment and indoor toys; health habits, including an afternoon rest period and medical examination by a doctor and a dentist; special field trips and outings; and daily transportation to and from the center if needed.

Fees charged for daily child care are set up according to national HEW guidelines. These guidelines provide for fees of children who are welfare recipients to be paid by the welfare department. Daily fees of children living in housing projects are paid through an arrangement with Sikeston Housing Authority.

Other children are charged on a sliding fee scale based on income above the Office of Economic Opportunity poverty guidelines. A minimum fee of 50 cents per day for food has been established and the exact amount of the child's fee is determined by an admissions committee when a registration blank is completed.

The center presently has 35 children enrolled, although it is accredited and licensed by the state of Missouri for a maximum enrollment of 40 children. Two rooms of 20 children are maintained with the use of a third multi-purpose room for eating, sleeping and special activities. A rationing of one "teacher" for every five children assures individual attention.

Children may be enrolled for day care by filling out a registration form at the secretary's desk at the Child Development Center. This is located in the southwest wing of Lincoln School. All registration forms are approved by an admissions committee. Priority is given to children of mothers who are employed or in vocational training. Mothers who wish to seek employment may enroll three or four-year-old children for a reasonable period of time while they actively look for a job.

The center is always open for visitation and strongly recommends that parents of prospective enrollees tour the center to see what facilities and services are offered.

Burlison Poll Indicates

Amnesty For Draft Dodgers Opposed

Fifty-nine per cent of the persons responding to a questionnaire from Rep. Bill D. Burlison of Missouri's 10th Congressional District have indicated that they would refuse amnesty to American boys who have left the country to avoid military service.

Burilison released further tabulations of his questionnaire today and said further releases would be made as tabulated.

A majority of those responding to the questionnaire indicated a preference for a four-year term for U. S. Representative, rather than the two years now provided by law.

Questions and results of today's questionnaire are:

1. American troop levels in Europe should be: reduced, 51 per cent; continued at present level, 38 per cent; increased, four per cent; undecided, seven per cent.

2. With respect to American boys who have left the country to avoid military service: grant amnesty, seven per cent; refuse amnesty, 59 per cent; grant amnesty if certain service conditions are met, 34 per cent; undecided, 10 per cent.

3. Pending are proposals to nominate our presidents just as we do our governors and members of congress; that is, by a direct primary. Are you: for, 82 per cent; against, 14 per cent; undecided, four per cent.

4. Pending are proposals to eliminate the electoral college and elect our president by popular vote in the November elections. Are you for, 87 per cent; against, 11 per cent; undecided, two per cent.

5. The term of office for a member of the United States House of Representatives is two years. Do you favor a term of: Two years, 44 per cent; four years, 54 per cent; undecided, two per cent.

ENVELOPING OUR FREEDOMS

"Our defeats far outweigh our successes," said British MP Winston Churchill II, laying it on the line to the graduating class of Westminister College, Fulton, Missouri. Who would have anticipated, asked Churchill, "that the dominant influence in the Middle East today would be Soviet; that there would be more Red Army personnel in Egypt than there were British troops in all of India at the height of the British rule one hundred years ago; that the Soviet fleet would be a force to reckon with in the Mediterranean and the Indian Ocean ... that the Soviet Union would have reached a position of military parity with the United States?" Soviet expansion has "come on us like a thief in the night."

The thief did not come unheralded; 26 years ago at the behest of President Harry S. Truman, Churchill's grandfather and namesake came to Fulton, Mo., the heart of America, to warn that a Soviet "Iron Curtain" threatened to envelope the freedoms of the West. — National Review

A SORRY LEGACY FOR OUR CHILDREN

According to a world economic service, economic historians will shake their heads in disbelief when they review some of the actions taken in the past years to cope with our national problems. They will find it inconceivable that a nation imposed wage and price controls while, at the same time, running up the biggest deficits in the country's history. Deficit spending and inflation - control programs are just not compatible.

The Brookings Institute, a highly respected research organization, is concerned that government spending has gotten out of hand. In a major study recently released, they stated that, for the first time in American history (except during major wars), government spending -- even without any new programs -- is now rising faster than the growth of revenues from an expanding economy. The study implies that there has been a breakdown in the ability of Congress to cope with the nation's financial problems and virtually accuses Congress of irresponsibility in its lack of control of the nation's pursestrings.

The Brookings report indicated that, without any new programs, and even if the economy were strong and operating with full employment, current spending programs alone will generate a $17 billion deficit for the 1975 fiscal year. In other words, builtin programs have set this nation on the course of spending vastly more money than it takes in over the next three years at least. And relief is nowhere in sight.

Don't forget, this projection does not take into consideration the possibilities of increased spending through expanded medical care programs, increased social security payments, higher defense spending, or rising aid payments to the cities and states.

It is obvious that a curb on government spending is absolutely necessary if inflation is to be brought under control. But we know this is an election year and no candidate in his right mind is going to promise belt-tightening. Relief, then, must be sought in another quarter. This brings us to the other major contributor to inflation -- a rapidly rising money supply. Unfortunately, this picture here looks equally dismal. The Federal "Lack of Reserve," as some economists choose to call them, has been caught up with Incomes Policies. Arthur Burns, the Fed's chairman, apparently believes that Incomes Policies alone are sufficient to curb inflation, so the Fed goes merrily on its way printing up money faster than the consumer can spend it. Apparently the Fed and other economic officials in Washington have forgotten all the bitter lessons learned by the Weimar Republic in Germany. The German administrators then made the same tragic mistake. As inflation increased, they printed up more money to keep up with the demand. And we all know where that road ended.

The United States, if it is to achieve any measurable degree of success in turning inflation around, must have curbs on both deficit spending and the inflationary monetary policies of the Fed. Today, unfortunately, too many members of Congress and the presidential candidates are not helping in this direction.

THE ARITHMETIC OF ZERO POPULATION GROWTH

If you're as puzzled as we are about the scientific projection of when the U.S. will reach Zero Population Growth (ZPD), read on.

The chief reason it will take so long is the high U. S. birth rate in the earlier postwar years. As the calendar has marched on, the baby boom of earlier years has become a young-adult boom -- and that uptrend will last for many years. For example, there were 15.5 million persons in the key child-bearing ages of 20 to 29 in 1970. By 1985 that age group will have grown to 21 million -- a one-third increase.

The predictable result of such an age structure, with larger and larger numbers of potential parents reaching child-bearing age, is a continuing high level of births -- well above the number of deaths -- into the next century. This seems certain even if the fertility rate (an estimate of the number of children the average woman will have in her lifetime, based on current births among women of child-bearing age) should decline from the current level of 2.3 children.

For example, even if couples decide immediately to have, on average, only 2.1 children (the added .1 is needed to take care of premature deaths), official projections of the Census Bureau place the U.S. population in the year 2020 at 307 million, almost 50 per cent higher than today. Such a projection assumes a continuance at present levels of net immigration into the U.S.

So if our calculations are right, it took more than 70 years to reach ZPG in the U.S. even with a two-child family size beginning in 1972 and with a ban on all immigration.

What would it take to bring an immediate halt to U.S. population expansion, to reach ZPG at the current population level of 209 million? Some rather drastic changes, according to the Presidential Commission of Population and the American Future, which was headed by John D. Rockefeller, 3rd.

In its report released in March, the Commission estimated that the birth rate, now 17.3 births per 1,000 population, would have to drop by almost 50 per cent. And today's young generation of parents would have to limit itself to an average of about one child.

There is no chance, most demographers agree, of that happening.

NEW STATISTICS SAY 'REAL' PROFITS LAG

The most significant fact to emerge from a recent change in the manner of presenting official statistics on American corporate profits is that "real" net returns have grown, on average, by less than two per cent annually since 1951. During the same period America's "real" gross national product nearly doubled.

When negotiating wage contracts trade unions never fail to point out that the purchasing power of the dollar declines year after year. And seldom is a wage agreement signed before labor has been "compensated" for this factor, which threatens its standard of living. Governments, dependent on the ballot box, have long recognized this fact. In advanced countries official statistics measuring "real" wages have been long used, taking into account that it is the actual buying power that counts.

Not so in the case of profits. And although statistics on "real" wages have been used for years, it was only recently that it has discovered "real" corporate profits have lagged badly. Quarterly figures will be supplied measuring profits in terms of dollars having the purchasing power of the U.S. dollar in 1958.

Measured against the growth of the real gross national product — i.e. total output of goods and services -- profits are shown to have fallen behind. In real terms, total profit growth since 1951 has only been about 34 percent, while during the past five years it has actually declined rather sharply.

No doubt interesting calculations could be made from the new statistics, which go back to 1945, to determine where the money goes. One fact that is made very clear by these figures is that the often repeated claim that corporations made money during periods of inflation contains little truth. If the worker suffers as a result of inflation, the investor suffers even more, since he cannot go on strike to demand more dollars as compensation for the decline in purchasing power of his interest or dividend.

But the investor has an other choice which is to withdraw his funds from corporations' stocks. Perhaps then labor unions and corporate management would feel the jolt that is needed to bring inflation under control for all concerned.

Candidates for the legislature and state offices today were asked to lend a hand toward securing adoption of Constitutional Amendment No. 1, which will be acted upon in the August primary election. The amendment requires consolidation of the state's 440 separate programs into not more than 14 departments.

Co-chairmen Robert M. White, II, and Dutton Brookfield of the Citizens Committee for State Reorganization told candidates the streamlining proposal gives Missourians the best opportunity in years to bring about basic improvement in state government.

But widespread understanding of the proposal is necessary, if it is to gain voter approval, they said.

They made a plea for candidates to discuss state streamlining in their campaigns.

Many candidates have already spoken for the amendment, they said.

Any not having done so were urged to lend their endorsement.

The pending amendment makes possible a simplified, cleaner state government structure. It limits the state government to 14 departments, in which clear lines of responsibility and authority can be established, they said.

The Committee has developed a brochure explaining the amendment which it sent to the candidates.

GOLDWATER AND ELLSBERG

From The Arizona Daily Star, Tucson...Senator Barry Goldwater of Arizona, meet Daniel Ellsberg of Cambridge, Mass. Despite wide variance in opinions, these two gentlemen now have something in common.

Ellsberg, late of the Rand think tank, spilled the beans by giving copies of the secret Pentagon Papers to the press. Ellsberg's violation of confidentiality has Attorney General John N. Mitchell in full pursuit. Recently, Senator Goldwater violated the secrecy of a White House news briefing. He published in the Congressional Record the transcript of a briefing on India and Pakistan which had been given by Henry Kissinger, the President's advisor. Newsmen who had been invited to the briefing were obligated to withhold the identify of Kissinger. If any newsman had done what the Senator From Arizona did, he and his news organization would have run the risk of being barred from future briefing sessions.

Asked why he made public the name of Kissinger from the confidential briefing, Senator Goldwater said, "I received a hand-delivered envelope from the White House (in reply to a request for information on the India-Pakistan situation). It looked like a typical press handout. To me there was no marking to indicate 'secret' or 'off-the-record.' Besides I don't work that way. Occasionally I'm invited to a secret briefing. I say the hell with it."

Goldwater is a newspaper columnist and his unmasking of Kissinger was an act that could have discredited another newspaperman. But it is certain the Senator will have no problems over the matter; after all, he was only authenticating material favorable to the White House.

Never having studied finance, we aren't able to say what the devalued dollar will mean to American prestige. But we still think, as a man proud of his American citizenship, that we have lost something when the standard of value we once had, is no longer in effect. And certainly the rapidly growing national debt is not going to make other countries respect our economy. Like you and everyone else, we suppose, we don't want to give up anything we are now enjoying from our American citizenship, but as an individual business man we couldn't expect to enjoy much credit if year after year we spent more than we took in.

ON AVOIDING FRICTION

The concept of avoiding friction with the Soviet Union calls for refraining from making ourselves more strong militarily, since doing so would motivate the USSR to increase its military might. The concept calls for competing with the Soviets in friendly fashion and increasing trade, thereby encouraging the people behind the Iron Curtain to seek a better standard of living.

If you wonder what would be necessary to accomplish an equality that would end envy in this standard of living area, here is what Richard M. DeVos, President of Amway Corporation, reported to this sales representatives: we would have to abandon three-fifths of our steel capacity, two-thirds of our petroleum production and 95 per cent of our electric output. We would have to destroy two of every three hydroelectric plants, and use only a tenth of our present volume of natural gas. We would need to tear up 14 of every 15 miles of paved highways, and two of every three miles of railroad tracks. We would have to scrap 19 of every 29 automobiles and trucks, and destroy 40 million television sets. There will be some who think that smashing that many television sets wouldn't be entirely bad, but it all sounds like a distinctly lower standard of living to us.

Detailing our standing in competition with the whole world, Mr. DeVos points out that although we have six percent of the world's population and seven per cent of its land surface, we own 71 per cent of all the automobiles in the world, 56 per cent of all telephones, 60 per cent of all radios, 29 per cent of all railroads, 83 per cent of all television sets, and 90 per cent of all bathtubs. This nation produces 59 percent of the world's steel, 46 per cent of its electric power, 50 per cent of its oil, 56 per cent of its corn, 42 per cent of its cotton, 33 per cent of its coal, 31 per cent of its copper and 38 per cent of its iron.

It occurs to us that a whale of a lot of friction went into accomplishing those production figures—the friction of spirited competition which our system of government encourages.

It might be that if the Soviets were permitted more competitive friction among themselves they would produce more of the things they envy in the free world societies.

NAVY AT WORK

To counter the bruising invasion the communists have launched against South Vietnam, the U.S. Navy has gone to the attack with the dash and vigor that is so characteristic of its tradition. Its cruisers, destroyers and smaller ships have rained deadly fire from their batteries on the ground troops of the communists who are bent on swamping the South Vietnam defenders. The Navy has not come out of the affray without some scars. Ships have been damaged and men killed and wounded. But its deadly firepower has shot up enemy concentrations near the coast with effectiveness.

It was marauding communist patrol boats that attacked a U.S. Navy destroyer back in the 1960s and brought us into open hostilities with the forces of North Vietnam. The incident is still controversial but the Navy is there now to carry out its orders and that is what it has done with efficiency and pride. The great aircraft carriers steaming at sea are constantly contributing to the defense of the South Vietnamese with air strikes.

Russia has studied the effectiveness of seapower as employed by this country and obviously is putting the lessons to work. U.S. intelligence indicates that the Soviets are now building two great cruisers and probably a carrier. When this armed sea might is brought into the diplomatic picture, our margin of security will be reduced. Our Navy needs more ships and more rocket firepower. It is ridiculous to let a traditional landpower such as Russia catch up. The men of the Navy have proved off Vietnam they know how to fight. Let's give them more tools. HLH

MIAMI — When labor's chief of chiefs, George Meany, gets his next honorary degree, it should be as a master of mockery. Those on his political hate list know it. It is true that George McGovern is on it. But so is Richard Nixon. And the thousands of observers who covered the conventions on this littered, helicopter and steel - helmeted protected beachhead should know that Meany set labor's policy and tone for the 1972 election right up the road here some time ago when he told his colleagues:

"McGovern is a louse but Nixon is a bigger one. If we have to beat him with McGovern despite his (McGovern's) policy on the war ... we'll have to back McGovern."

Amidst the heat in and out of Convention Hall besieged by youth, within and without, Meany's mockery of President Nixon has been forgotten by most.

President Nixon doesn't mind Meany's snapping the quip at him -- the White House believes the insults mean votes. But the significance to those labor leaders who heard George lash out at the two men who will be running for President is that the 77- year- old labor leader will make his peace with the Democratic party, slowly but surely, in a "few" months.

The labor chief will not launch an independent labor party. He will not smash the Congressional coalition he has built over the years. He will continue to nudge the party in the direction he wants it to go. He has long warned that it is in the hands of the New Left. He has said he doesn't trust this generation, at least that part of the now crowd which "smokes pot" and "lays around a field up in woodstock." (He has urged them to "join the church" or work in the inner cities.)

It is true that he and those of his veteran colleagues such as the Steel Workers' I. W. Abel dislike the neo- liberal intellectual image of McGovern's followers. It is true that old- line labor leaders spent scores of thousands of dollars here, especially last Monday in a drive to deprive McGovern of those California delegate votes.

It is true that the frustrated labor leaders who have guided the AFL- CIO's political action machinery successfully for decades were embittered on the convention floor when dead silence greeted the mention by Sen. Abe Ribicoff of the late President Kennedy Wednesday night -- or of Roosevelt, Truman and Johnson. Even of Ted Kennedy who Meany thought would head the ticket.

But it is also true that Meany has lunched privately with McGovern in the past, pledged him friendship, promised to support any liberal Democrat except Mayor John Lindsay.

Furthermore, Meany is more than a crafty gin rummy player. The old chieftain has been playing table stakes in the longest floating political crap game in modern Washington.

He lost one roll of the dice to the Teamsters' Frank Fitzsimmons, now possessor of one of few political pass keys to the White House. Stoically he lost a second roll when McGovern's strategists pulled the Auto Workers' leader, 61- year old, six- foot Leonard Woodcock out of national obscurity and into international visibility as a countermove to Meany's thrust for McGovern's campaign jugular.

This Operation Woodcock was a double play against Meany. It not only bolsters Woodcock at home, where he is having great difficulty in his union with the left and the right, but the McGovern ploy adds muscle to Woodcock, in global labor circles long dominated by the AFL- CIO.

In all this it is not tangential to know that, during the Presidential balloting Wednesday night, a "George Wallace for President" placard was hoisted over the Michigan delegation saying that UAW Ford Local 600, biggest in the union, was for the Alabama governor.

Thus Meany isn't about to cut himself off from all sources of Presidential power. His antipathy for McGovern's legions springs not only from his distaste for what he calls their loose morals but also from the fact that he now leads a movement of middle- class workers. So it has been easy for him to warn the Democratic party of ''shambles'' and "disintegration."

But that same sensitivity to the new middle- class labor establishment has led him to respect the influence of new -- and young, by labor's standards -- national union chiefs and their own young and black memberships.

One of those who was most active behind both the labor and McGovern scenes here is the State, County and Municipal Employes' president Jerry Wurf. Long a friend of McGovern's and contributor to McGovern these past few weeks of strategical expertise and infra- structural organizational aid, Wurf has been playing a mediator's role.

Late Wednesday night and right into Thursday morning, Wurf directed the draft-Kennedy campaign -- throwing his young people into the fight, printing literature in the early morning hours, acting as liaison between all forces. There is no doubt that Wurf, with his powerful union's influence in America's black communities now, is one of labor's policymaking national personalities. He is convinced that Meany and the AFL- CIO will back the Democratic party. So are others on the federation's 35-man executive council.

Meany plays all his games with a poker face. He's a man who know his own power. It is still enormous. Make no mistake on this one. His could be the balance of power. He may believe McGovern is a louse. But remember what the curmudgeon said about Dick Nixon. So now we proceed to Act Four.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Jack Anderson

WASHINGTON — Larry O'Brien relaxed from the rigors of running the Democratic convention last week aboard a $200,000 pleasure boat provided by the giant Whittaker Corporation.

The party chairman's corporate hosts even wanted to name the luxury cruiser the "Larry O" in his honor. But O'Brien, not wishing to advertise his free yacht, modestly declined the gesture.

In fact, he sought to avoid attention by sending his security men to board the boat separately. Then, O'Brien and his guests would slip aboard in casual clothes.

He found the yacht a particularly handy retreat to avoid Rev. Ralph Abernathy and his "poor people" who were clamoring at his door. After one encounter with the poor, O'Brien fled to his floating lounge and cooled off with cocktails.

The boat came stocked with $100 worth of free booze, but the brands didn't suit his taste. He frequently sent out for quarts of Beefeater's gin to make his favorite extra-dry martinis. He also insisted on having on board, at all times, three bottles of special vintage wine.

PLUS FURNISHINGS

The yacht, a spanking new Bertram 46, is manufactured by a Miami firm called Bertram Yacht, a division of the Whittaker Corporation. It comes equipped with color television, stereo, plus carpeting, two staterooms with stand-up showers and teakwood paneling.

For a week prior to the convention, O'Brien spent time aboard the yacht every day. Usually, he was accompanied by shapely young secretaries who sipped cocktails with him and sunned in bikinis. For nourishment, they munched on such delicacies as lobster thermidor.

On the evening before the Democratic telethon, O'Brien, his wife and staff celebrated his birthday aboard the yacht with a rack-of-lamb dinner.

A Democratic party spokesman told us the yacht was used "as a floating office." He said O'Brien went aboard to prepare the final draft of his convention speech. All food and liquor, said the spokesman, was paid for by O'Brien.

As a matter of fact, we have documentation that O'Brien paid only for the replenishments after the original stock of liquor had been consumed. He also paid for half of the crew's salary but refused to feed them.

The yacht was arranged by Ron Beasley and Mike Doyle, two suave public relations specialists based in Miami. They had no comment.

GM AWARD

Anyone who doubts that Detroit has control of the government auto safety program should watch what is about to happen at a car safety conference in San Francisco this week.

The conference, sponsored by the Transportation Department, plans to present an automobile safety award to Edward Col, the president of General Motors.

This isn't quite the same as giving an award for crime prevention to a Mafia lord. But, of all car makers, GM has the most scandalous safety record. It is responsible for the notorious Corvair, whose unsafety at any speed launched Ralph Nader to national prominence.

General Motors also holds the world's record for cars recalled because of serious safety defects. In all, it has called back nearly seven million cars.

The latest episode involved the Chevrolet Vega, which GM once labeled "the finest car ever built in America at any price." The company just recalled a half million Vegas because their wheels might fall off.

This is the third recall of Vegas. The other two were for defects that could have caused the cars to burst into flames or fly out of control.

The responsibility for giving the safety award to General Motors belongs to the Transportation Department's National Motor Vehicle Safety Advisory Council, which organized the conference. A look at its membership makes it clear how GM got the award. The council is loaded with auto industry officials. The vice chairman, for example, is Trevor Jones, director of electronic controls systems for none other than General Motors.

MAIL VIOLATION

Every election year brings a flood of abuses of the congressional franking privilege which allows Members of Congress to use the mails free for official business. The usual violation occurs when candidates for re-election use the frank to mail campaign material.

Representative Sam Steiger, R-Ariz., has found a new variation. He is using the frank to benefit a special interest. He recently deluged voters with material furnished him by the National Right to Work Committee, an antiunion lobby.

Navy Finds 43 Flaws In New F14 Fighter

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy found 43 major flaws in test models of its new F14 fighter plane during a preliminary evaluation late last year, according to congressional testimony made public today.

Sixteen of those deficiencies related to safety.

The Navy told a House Appropriations subcommittee that "corrective action is under way" and that a majority of the repaired aircraft would be ready for testing this summer.

This testimony, which also reported 75 minor problems with the F14, came during closed-door budget hearings last April.

An F14 crashed into Chesapeake Bay June 30, killing its civilian test pilot. Navy sources said divers still are recovering pieces of the plane and that cause of the crash has not yet been determined.

The specific problems detected during evaluation flights by Navy pilots last November and December were referred to only sketchily in the April report to the House subcommittee.

But testimony by senior admirals under questioning indicated deficiencies involved engines stalling, difficulty in recovering from spins, and flight range, among other things.

In addition, the congressmen were told that 10 deficiencies were found in the system controlling the Phoenix missile, the F14's principal weapon. Most of these problems, too, will be straightened out, the Navy assured the subcommittee.

The F14 is designed to serve the Navy in fleet air defense and air superiority missions in the late 1970s and the 1980s.

Thieu Enacts Police Laws

SAIGON (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu has put into effect new emergency laws which give his government broad police powers, prohibit demonstrations and strikes, and ban the publication of news or photographs considered detrimental to national security.

The new measures also include a crackdown on violators of curfew hours, give police the authority to raid homes and confiscate materials considered dangerous to national defense, allow for the shooting of lawbreakers, and permit tighter surveillance of those who oppose government policy.

All violations, except those of curfew, have been placed under the jurisdiction of a military court during what Thieu termed a state of war or martial law.

Sentences range from six days to two months for curfew violations and up to two years and a $1,250 fine for strikers.

The new measures were issued Saturday under the law which gives Thieu emergency powers for six months in the fields of economy and national security. They were published Monday by Vietnam Press, the official government news agency.

One Dies In Crane Collapse

KANSAS CITY (AP) — One man was killed and four others were seriously injured today when a crane collapsed and the girder-like object they had been riding fell about 150 feet at the Harry S. Truman Sports Complex.

Names of the men were not immediately released.

Authorities said they fell into a seating area at the complex's football stadium and were pinned beneath the girder-like object, a metal support for a loud speaker system.

Cause of the mishap was not immediately known.

Man Convicted For Israeli Airport Raid

LOD, Israel (AP) — An Israeli army court convicted Japanese radical Kozo Okamoto today for his part in the Lod Airport massacre.

The 24- year- old defendant could get the death penalty for the attack on Israel's international airport May 30 in which 28 persons were killed and 70 were wounded. But the court is expected to sentence him to life imprisonment.

Story Reports Large Scale U.S. Spying

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Government officials have declined comment on a Ramparts magazine article which says U.S. intelligence can pinpoint the location of Soviet military and space craft and monitor every transatlantic telephone call.

The Western White House in San Clemente, Calif., the Department of Defense in Washington and a spokesman for the National Security Agency at Ft. Meade, Md., would not respond to the article entitled "U.S. Espionage: A Memoir." The article, appearing in the August issue of the magazine which went on newstands today, is based on an interview with a man purported to be a former NSA analyst.

The ex-analyst, identified by a spokesman for the magazine as "Winslow Peck,"—a pseudonym—is quoted as saying flights over Russian territory are made routinely by jets "which climb high enough to reach the edge of outer space."

Knowledgeable sources other than the Defense Department denied that U.S. reconnaissance planes fly over Russia.

Contacted in San Diego at a telephone number supplied by Ramparts, a man who said he was "Peck," 26, refused to give his real name but said he was employed by NSA for 3½ years after enlisting in the Air Force in 1966.

He said he quit because he was disillusioned in Vietnam.

The Ramparts article said the United States monitors every government in the world, including its allies, and listens in on all transatlantic telephone calls to or from this country, even those by private citizens.

"As far as the Soviet Union is concerned we know the whereabouts at any given time of all its aircraft, exclusive of small private planes, and its naval forces, including its missile-firing submarines," the former analyst said in the article.

He said he briefed then-Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey on the Soviet tactical air force in 1967 and once listened to a tearful conversation between Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin and a Russian cosmonaut about to be killed during re-entry.

Maryland Inmates Return To Cells

JESSUP, Md. (AP) — The Maryland House of Corrections remained quiet early today as officials tried to assess the situation at the maximum security prison following a 12-hour riot that left four guards and four inmates injured.

"It was the worst damage I've seen," said Gov. Marvin Mandel, whose agreement to meet with an inmate delegation finally prompted the last few hundred of the rebelling prisoners to return to their cells about 5 a.m. Sunday.

Many fires had erupted sporadically almost from the onset of inmates' rampage. Officials said the trouble began Saturday evening with an escape attempt in the outdoor recreation yard.

Initial estimates of damage ran as high as $1.5 million.

Mandel, after meeting with the inmate delegation, said he would look into some of the grievances. He said there were no demands voiced by the inmates.

Specifically mentioned, the governor said, were the areas of medical service and the classification board, which assigns inmates to the various institutions within the state corrections system.

As of early today there were still no communications within the 1,500-inmate, predominantly black institution.

Italian Winter Fashions Unveiled

ROME (AP) — Italian fashion houses began unveiling their fall-winter collections today with designers trying to entice rather than command.

"There is no longer a hard trend in haute couture," said American-born designer Tiziani, normally one of the pacesetters for the jet-setters.

Despite what he said, Tiziani's style is a classic sportwear look for daytime or evening wear. Coats are looser with modified kimono-type sleeves.

Designers are trying to eliminate such superfluous features as padding, and to keep the lines simple and sober. But they have made up for it in other ways.

Fancy jewelry is an eyecatching feature of many collections.

Also in vogue are the soft cloche hats.

Husband Keeps Track Of Refusals For A Year

Dear Ann Landers: This morning when my neighbor came over for our regular 10 o'clock cup of coffee she had in her hand a letter her husband had brought home from work. He thought it was pretty funny. We wonder how much kidding on the square was involved. Here's the letter, Ann. Please decide:

Dear Loving Wife:

During the past year I have tried to make love to you 365 times. I recorded 229 excuses and 36 successes. I kept track of the reasons which accompanied the refusals. Here they are:

We'll wake the children	17
It's too hot	10
It's too cold	5
I'm too tired	32
It's too early	15
It's too late	23
Please, dear, I'm asleep	35
Windows open, neighbors hear	9
Backache	18
Headache	16
Toothache	2
Drank too much	4
Ate too much	14
Not in the mood	21
Mud pack	2
New Hair-do	17
Company in next room	11
Wouldn't you rather watch the late TV show?	40
Is that all you men think about?	29

Thanks, dear. Your loving Husband (But Not Enough)

How about it, Ann. Is it funny? --Paradise, Calif.

Dear Paradise: Yes, it's funny, but like a great deal that passes for humor, I sense a lot of kidding on the square.

Dear Ann Landers: Since your column appears in the Rapid City Journal we feel that you are a member of our community. Will you please give us a hand? As you know, the people in Rapid City are trying hard to recover from the worst disaster ever experienced in this ten-state area. Almost every family in town has lost relatives, friends, property and possessions not covered by insurance.

The major industry in the Black Hills is the tourist business. Almost all our local people are dependent, either directly or indirectly, on the tourists who visit Mt. Rushmore and the Black Hills in July and August. If the tourists stay away, the financial impact of the flood will be multiplied many times.

The people of western South Dakota are more interested in having an opportunity to continue earning a living than in receiving massive doses of federal aid. Please, Ann, tell the world that the Black Hills are as beautiful as ever. None of the major tourist attractions was damaged by the flood. Fewer than one percent of the motels, resorts and campgrounds were in the flood area. Tourists will also find the local people as friendly and helpful as in the past. --J.W.H., President, National College of Business.

Dear J.W.H. I have visited in Rapid City and loved it. Here is your letter with an added word from me to all of you who have never been there. Go this summer if you haven't been. You'll have the time of your life -- and the community needs the money.

Is alcoholism ruining your life? Know the danger signals and what to do. Read the booklet, "Alcoholism -- Hope And Help," by Ann Landers.

Dr. Reuter On Committee For Handicapped Children

HOWARDVILLE — Dr. George S. Reuter Jr., superintendent of schools of New Madrid County R-1 enlarged district, is a member of a committee of school administrators who have been asked to meet in Jefferson City Wednesday by Dr. Arthur L. Mallory, state commissioner of education.

The committee will discuss how to coordinate efforts of the state department of education and the school districts in providing new programs for handicapped children during the 1972-73 school year.

Dr. Mallory has urged school districts "to concentrate their efforts to meet unmet needs" so that "meaningful educational experiences will be provided for all children and youth." Dr. Mallory urged school districts to consider the following approaches:

(1) House Bill 1096, which provides that a county, or two or more counties, may create a special district to provide instruction for handicapped children and vocational education classes for all under the age of 21.

(2) Section 178.260, RSMo., provides that school districts may establish special classes by contracting with nearby districts for the education of such children.

(3) The attorney general has ruled that districts may provide for preschool program out of funds other than state aid.

(4) The law directing county superintendents to complete an annual census of the handicapped is no longer effective.

Looking Back

Tooth Infection Fatal

50 years ago
July 17, 1922

One of the saddest deaths that has occurred for some time was that of Mrs. Maude McCoy, wife of Lou Mc Coy, which occurred Friday at the Mullanphy Hospital in St. Louis. Some years ago she had a wisdom tooth extracted and a small lump formed on the gums where the tooth came out, but no particular attention was given it. Supposing that it would soon be absorbed. Instead, in recent weeks, an infection began and she was taken to the hospital where an operation was performed. It was believed she would soon be able to return to her home and be in good health, but a reaction set in and she passed away suddenly from a blood clot of the heart.

Mrs. Green Lescher, who has been the guest of Judge and Mrs. Lescher for the past few days, returned to her home in St. Louis Sunday.

The funeral of Miss Iva Kinsolving, aged 23 years, who died at her home, one mile northeast of Sikeston, last Friday, took place at the family residence Sunday

Mrs. Eva Kasinger, wife of S.R. Kasinger, died at her home in Sikeston Friday last, of acute nephritis at the age of 45 years.

One of the most unique of the many fish ponds in the city, has recently been finished by R. H. Wagner, his sons and two or three non-professional assistants. The pool located in the south corner of the back yard "living room" on Moore avenue, is built in the shape of a fish. It even boasts an albino eye.

David Blanton was able to return home from the Emergency Hospital Wednesday at noon. He is pretty weak, but his throat has healed smooth and Dr. Kendig thinks he will soon be as good as new. The family feel thankful that a load of worry and sadness has been lifted from our hearts.

Canalou – Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Percy left Sunday for Bloomington, Ill., where they will visit relatives and friends.

Mrs. Alice Hammond, born in Crittenden County, Ky., September 12, 1857, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Louis Barnes near Sikeston Thursday at the age of 74 years.

What's The Law?

The Case Of The Vanishing Preacher

By Jack Strauss, LL. B.

The Rev. Jones took his text and preached from it, far from it. While presiding over a cemetery burial, he suddenly vanished from sight into an empty grave when he slipped on a fake grass mat. It had been placed over an adjacent memorial slab by the undertaker for the purpose of giving the cemetery a tidier appearance. Fortunately, the minister's absence produced an immediate search. And, in short order, he was found and hoisted from his untimely grave. Dripping from mud, the soft spoken but irate minster sued the undertaker for his injuries.

"He was careless in not providing a safe site for the burial," he complained in court. "While it was my job to lead the deceased to heaven, it was not my job to follow him there."

"It rained earlier in the day and everything was wet and slippery, responded the undertaker. "Consequently, I can't be held responsible for what happened. The rain was an act of God and, as a minister, the Rev. Jones should know better than to try to blame me for God's doing."

IF YOU WERE THE JUDGE, would you hold the undertaker accountable for the sudden disappearance of the Rev. Jones?

This is how the judge ruled: YES! The judge held that an undertaker, or the person charged with the responsibility, if it is someone else, must take proper steps to see to it that a grave site is reasonably safe. Or, at least, concluded the judge, he must warn those attending the funeral of any hazards that might exist. (Based upon a 1964 Louisiana Court of Appeals Decision)

Only 19 inches wide, St. John's Lane in Rome is the narrowest street in the world.

Today In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Monday, July 17, the 199th day of 1972. There are 167 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1936, the Spanish Civil War began as Gen. Francisco Franco led army forces in a revolt against Spain's government.

On this date:

In 1821, Spain ceded Florida to the United States.

In 1898, during the Spanish- American War, Spanish forces surrendered to the Americans at Santiago, Cuba.

In 1917, during World War I, the British royal family changed its name from Hanover to Windsor.

In 1940, President Franklin Roosevelt was nominated by the Democratic convention for a third term.

In 1955, Arco, Idaho, became the first community in the world to receive all its light and power from atomic energy.

In 1965, U.S. B52 bombers from Guam made their first strikes in Vietnam in support of allied ground operations.

Ten years ago: The U.S. Senate killed a Medicare bill sought by President John Kennedy.

Five years ago: Congress passed legislation calling for an end to a nationwide railroad strike and the strikers prepared to go back to their jobs.

One year ago: Vice President Agnew, returning from a visit to Africa, said he believed ordinary black citizens in the U.S. were tired of what he called "constant complaining" by their leaders.

Cline Favors Little Hoover Proposal

C. F. Cline, democratic candidate for state representative in the new 159th District, has endorsed the "Little Hoover" Commission recommendation for reorganization of the executive branch of state government.

In a statement issued by his campaign headquarters, Cline stated:

"The present executive branch in Missouri has 87 various units reporting directly to the governor. In the newly proposed executive structure, the number of state departments will be limited to 14.

"This will not only streamline and simplify the business of running the state, it will also save taxpayers millions of dollars every year. I highly recommend that people in the 159th District vote "yes" on Amendment No. 1.

Pirates Cool Astros In Twinbill

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

"We hit the ball and they caught it," said Lee May of the Houston Astros. "They hit the ball and it was in the hole. That's baseball."

No, that's the Pittsburgh Pirates. The Pirates use the home field advantage as well as any team in the National League—and Sunday turned it to their advantage again.

Base hits whistled through the infield on the hard, artificial surface at Three Rivers Stadium and the Pirates literally ran off with a pair of 3-2 victories over the Astros.

"I've never seen so many ground balls shoot through like they do for the Pirates," said Houston Manager Harry Walker. "Manny Sanguillen hits that ball on the ground and—boom—it's gone."

The Pirates killed two birds with the double triumph. For one thing, the East leaders moved 4½ games up on the second-place New York Mets, who lost a 7-3 decision to the San Diego Padres. For another, they dropped the Astros five games behind Cincinnati in the West after the Reds beat the St. Louis Cardinals 4-1.

Elsewhere in the National League, the Los Angeles Dodgers cut down the Montreal Expos 4-2; the San Francisco Giants defeated the Philadelphia Phillies 10-7 and the Chicago Cubs downed the Atlanta Braves 5-3.

In the American League, the Oakland A's tripped the New York Yankees 5-2; the Detroit Tigers turned back the Kansas City Royals 2-0; the Boston Red Sox walloped the Minnesota Twins 6-1; the Baltimore Orioles defeated the Chicago White Sox 6-1 in the first game of a doubleheader cut short in the seventh inning by rain; the California Angels blanked the Milwaukee Brewers 1-0 in the first game of a twin bill before losing the second, 2-1 and Texas edged Cleveland 3-2 in 12 innings.

The Pirates' first-game victory was fashioned with the help of speed, combined with that Tartan-Turf surface. The contest was tied 2-2 when Willie Stargell opened the 10th inning with a walk. Stargell raced to third when Sanguillen rifled a sharp single through the infield.

After Rennie Stennett was walked intentionally to load the bases, Bob Robertson was struck on the right wrist with a Fred Gladding pitch, forcing in the winning run.

In the second game, the Pirates took a 1-0 lead with an unearned run in the first inning—then used that tailormade combination of speed and playing-surface again to build their lead.

The Pirates scored their eventual winning runs off Houston's Don Wilson in the fourth when Al Oliver singled and scored on Stargell's double. Stennett then drilled a ball through the Astro infielders for a run-scoring single.

Bruce Kison got the secondgame victory with last-out relief help from Dave Giusti, who nailed it down after giving up a two-run single to May.

Throwing errors by pitchers Jerry Koosman and Danny Frisella helped San Diego break a tie with four runs in the seventh inning as San Diego defeated New York.

The Padres tied the game 3-3 on Enzo Hernandez' two-run single in the sixth inning.

Bobby Tolan hit a tie-breaking home run, then doubled and scored again as Cincinnati took St. Louis behind Jack Billingham's eight-hitter. The Reds' victory was their sixth straight, boosting their front-running lead to its biggest of the year.

Bill Buckner ripped a two-run triple to highlight a four-run first inning and Don Sutton scattered seven hits to lead Los Angeles.

Manager's Strategy Works

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

When you're hot, you're hot and when you're not, you're probably the Milwaukee Brewers.

The baseball Brewers were stuck in one of their cold spells Sunday—six losses in eight games including a 1-0 two-hitter at the hands of California's Rudy May in the first game of their doubleheader.

What's worse is that the second game was also 1-0 in California's favor as Milwaukee came to bat in the bottom of the eighth inning. The Brewers weren't cold—they were frozen.

Clearly, it was time for action and so Manager Del Crandall used his old pinch runner for a pinch runner move.

The double pinch runner strat gy paid off—helped considerably by George Scott's two-run single—as the Brewers rallied for a 2-1 victory and a split of the doubleheader.

Elsewhere in the American League Sunday, Oakland rapped New York 5-2, Detroit shut out Kansas City 2-0, Bostono whipped Minnesota 6-1, Texas defeated Cleveland 3-2 in 12 innings and Baltimore downed Chicago 6-1 in the rain-abbreviated first game of a scheduled doubleheader. The nightcap was washed out.

In the National League, Pittsburgh swept a doubleheader from Houston, 3-2 in both games, Chicago dropped Atlanta 5-3, Cincinnati took St. Louis 4-1, San Francisco ripped Philadelphia 10-7, San Diego dropped New York 7-3 and Los Angeles trimmed Montreal 4-2.

Starter Lloyd Allen and reliever Rick Clark had limited the Brewers to just four hits in the nightcap when pinch hitter Ron Theobald opened the eighth inning with a single. Here Crandall started working. Pinch Runner Number One.

"When the first guy up in the inning singled, I didn't want to use a player we might need later, so I sent in pitcher Skip Lockwood," Crandall explained.

The situation cried for a bunt and Rick Auerbach delivered it. What's more, Auerbach beat it out. And here comes Pinch Runner Number Two, not for Auerbach, but for Lockwood.

"We get men on first and second and this is or chance to win the ball game," said Crandall, "so I sacrifice a little speed at second base for experience by sending in Bob Heise to run for Lockwood."

Brock Davis followed with another bunt single and Scott delivered with his game-winning two-run single.

Questioned about the double pinch runner strategy move afterwards, Crandall shrugged it off, saying, "it worked pretty good, that's all I know."

Playoffs Begin

Two games are scheduled for tonight's first round in the District 3 Junior Babe Ruth baseball tournament at V.F.W. Stadium. Tri-County and New Madrid open the double - elimination tourney at 7 p.m. A 9 p.m. nightcap follows between Chaffee and Charleston.

East Prairie and defending district and state winner Sikeston move into play when they meet tonight's winners in games scheduled for Tuesday night.

The winner of the six-team double - elimination meet will advance into state play, slated July 26-29 at Joplin. The Missouri champ will advance into regional play in Fargo, N.D., Aug. 8-13. The regional winner advances into the world series at Pine Bluff, Ark., Aug. 19-26.

Moving into the tournament as defending District champion, the Sikeston age 13-15 All-Star unit will be managed by Leonard Campbell and coached by Paul Luber and Jimmy Turner. All but a few of the boys that were on last year's team, which won district and state titles to move into regional play at Belle Plains, Minn., have moved out of the Junior Babe Ruth League. A new set of athletes fills the Sikeston lineup that moved into play Tuesday in defense of district and state crowns.

Reds Sweep Card Series

ST. LOUIS (AP) — "It's too hot to go nine innings," Cincinnati pitcher Jack Billingham said just before taking the mound against the Cardinals Sunday afternoon.

"I started looking toward the bull pen about the seventh inning. My arm still felt good, but my body was dead. I threw some pitches in the eighth and ninth innings that I didn't know I had left in me," he said.

"I was falling behind on every hitter and just coming in with fast balls, but I was lucky that the Cardinals were hitting the ball right at someone."

It may sound like the story of the losing pitcher. But Billimgham (6-9) went the route and won it 4-1, his third straight complete game and his fourth of the season.

Ex-Cardinal Bobby Tolan provided a homer and a double to pace the Reds to their sixth consecutive win, sweeping the three-game series with the Cards.

Darrel Chaney doubled to open the Reds third inning, came around on a sacrifice bunt and scored on an infield out. The Cards tied it in their half of the frame with a double by Ed Crosby and a single by Matty Alou.

Tolan smacked the homer in the fourth and in the sixth doubled, scoring on Toney Perez' single to right. The Reds got their final run in the eighth when Johnny Bench doubled, moved to third on a wild pitch and scored on Dennis Menke's bunt.

Reds Manager Sparky Anderson said the Cards rookie pitcher Don Durham "looked pretty good out there. He was tough and should do well for the Cardinals."

Durham was in his first starting assignment, having been called up last week from Tulsa. The 23-year-old righthander gave up three runs in seven innings and struck out six.

Red Schoendienst, Cardinal manager, said of Durham, "I'll put him in the regular rotation after the All-Star break. He'll be my fourth starter. He pitched well and he's going to get better. We just couldn't get a break for him."

Sikeston Stars Win In 13th

Everyone knows that if you want something done right, you have to put a lot of hard work into it. Nothing less than hard work, from both the individual and team level paid off Sunday in the second of three playoff games scheduled at V.F.W. Stadium between the district championship - seeking Sikeston All-Stars and the visiting SeMo All-Stars.

With their backs against the wall and already one game down in the best of three, rain delayed district playoff, the Sikeston Senior Babe Ruth All-Stars came through with a 3-2 marathon win in 13 innings.

Behind the long arm of Eddie McDowell and a timely 13th - inning game - winning single by John Leible, the Sikeston squad knotted the three game playoff, 1-1, and moved the final championship tilt into a noon showdown today.

Only after several hours of work from the makeshift ground crew at V.F.W. Stadium, (calling on recruits from the Sikeston players and those individually concerned with getting the rain-soaked, puddle-spotted infield into playing shape) did the two Southeast Missouri all-star units settle down to the 13- inning, hard-fought duel.

It was a combination of hard work that made the game possible and a lot of gutsy work that kept the contest rolling through four hours of Sunday afternoon heat which blanketed the 13-inning battle.

Sikeston's hard throwing, left - hander Eddie McDowell went the distance for the win, fanning 17 SeMo batters and giving up only three hits in the 13-inning game. Leible, the Sikeston catcher, blasted his game-winning single into center field with one out in the 13th frame to send Greg Colwick home with the winning run from second base. Colwick reached base on a single, stole second and was followed by a walk by Rick Dyer before Leible's winning blast ended the contest.

The SeMo All-Stars — made up of players from Lilbourn, New Madrid, East Prairie and Bertrand — after trailing 2-0 in the early innings of play knotted the score at 2- all with two runs in the top half of the fourth inning and settled down to what turned out to be nine remaining innings of play.

Tim Bard opened on the mound for the visiting SeMo All-Star crew and worked four innings before giving way to Bill St. Mary, — who followed with five innings of work. Bard was tagged with the first two runs while reliever Pat McClarty worked the final hour innings and was on the mound in the decisive 13th inning.

Sikeston threated to score in the 10th inning as pinch - hitter Jim Saulters unloaded a leadoff double and was out at home trying to score on a fielders choice that followed from Bryan Montgomery. Montgomery was also tagged out at home in an attempt to score as a walk and another fielders choice sent him in for the attempted tie-breaker.

McDowell worked the final six innings against SeMo batsmen without a giving up a hit. A play at the plate picked up the third out in the eight inning as catcher Leible tagged out SeMo shortsop Grant Damach, trying to score from third on a passed ball.

The winner of today's battle will advance into play in the state tournament starting Wednesday at Jefferson City. Friday night the SeMo Stars tagged the Sikeston stars in a 16-1 runaway contest for the first round triumph. Saturday's games were cancelled as rains pushed the game into Sunday's contest. Two games were scheduled for Sunday, but the length of the first game sent the team's into today's final game.

Rupp to Head ABA's New Tams

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Former University of Kentucky basketball coach Adolph Rupp, the new president of the Memphis Tams of the American Basketball Association, says all the franchise needs is development by people with imagination.

Rupp, 70, was named Saturday to the position by Charles O. Finley, a Chicago millionaire and sports promoter who officially acquired the team July 6. Rupp retired at Kentucky this summer after amassing the most victories in college basetball history.

"This thing (Memphis) has hit bottom and the main thing now is to bail it out," Rupp said from his home in Lexington, Ky. "All it needs is development by people with imagination."

Rupp said he would be responsible only to Finley "and that will be only if I should make a flop of the thing."

Finley said from Chicago that Rupp has accepted a three-year contract, but declined to disclose terms.

Finley, who also owns four hockey and baseball franchises, took an instant dislike to the old name of his Memphis property, the Pros, and conducted a $2,500 contest to re-name the club.

$400.00 a month cash

—that's $13.33 a day—for a registered nurse at home if your doctor has you hire one within five days following a covered hospital confinement of five days or more for as long as you were hospitalized—up to one year.

UP TO $2,000.00 cash

for complete accidental loss of limbs or eyesight. If you suffer complete loss of a hand or foot or the sight of an eye within 90 days of the accident, you collect $1,000.00 — and $2,000.00 for the loss of two limbs or the sight of both eyes.

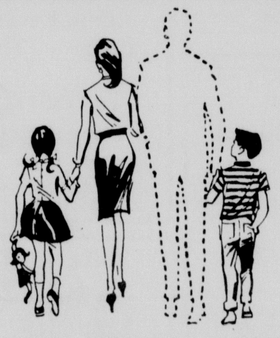
$2,400.00 a month cash

$1,200.00 a month for you—and $1,200.00 a month for your spouse . . . when an accident hospitalizes covered husband and wife at the same time. Yes, you collect $2,400.00 A MONTH in all (when under 65) while both are in the hospital—even for life.

We pay all premiums

that come due for you and all covered members of your family should you — the policyowner—be hospitalized for eight consecutive weeks or more. And you don't have to pay us back.

We guarantee not to cancel your protection no matter how many claims you have . . . or how old you become . . . or for any reason whatsoever. Only you can cancel.



We guarantee not to raise your low rates because of how old you become . . . or how many claims you have . . . but only if there is a general rate adjustment on all policies of this class in your entire state.

NO AGE LIMIT • NO SALESMAN OR AGENT WILL CALL

OVER 30 million people will be admitted to a hospital this year! It could be you—or some beloved member of your family—tomorrow . . . next week . . . next month. Sad to say, very few families have anywhere near enough coverage to meet today's soaring hospital costs. These costs have more than doubled in just a few short years.

Stop for a moment. Think how much a long stay in the hospital will cost you or a loved one. How would you ever pay for costly, but necessary, X-rays, doctor bills, drugs and medicines? What would you do if your pay check stopped, but living expenses kept going on the same as ever? The same rent, phone, food, all the day-to-day expenses that never stop.

What is the average breadwinner to do? We believe we have the answer in this National Home plan.

Pays you up to $600.00 a month tax-free cash when you are hospitalized.

Now you can have $600.00 cash coming in every month—$20.00 a day—beginning the very first day you enter the hospital due to an accident, and the sixth day for confinements due to sickness. You collect $600.00 a month, even for life, if necessary.

The cash is paid directly to you in addition to whatever you may receive from your insurance with any other companies. Use the money as you see fit—for hospital or doctors' bills. To replace savings or cover household expenses. Every dollar is tax-free.

How much does $600.00 a month protection cost you? Only 25¢ covers you and your entire family for the first month. After that you may continue at our regular low rates.

Pays you $360.00 a month cash when any unmarried dependent child is hospitalized.

When you choose Coverage for Children, this National Home plan pays you at the rate of $360.00 a month cash, $12.00 a day, when one of your children is hospitalized. Pays for as long as necessary! Children are covered for accidents from the first day and for sickness from the sixth day.

Pays you at the rate of $600.00 a month for Maternity Benefits!

If both husband and wife are insured for the entire period of pregnancy (and have added Coverage for Children and Maternity Benefits), you get tax-free cash to use any way you want. Yes, if a pregnancy, childbirth or even miscarriage puts you in the hospital for one day, five days, ten days—as long as necessary—you get cash benefits of $20.00 a day for every day of your confinement.

Pays you $400.00 a month cash for a Registered Nurse at Home.

How comforting it is to know that—after your stay in the hospital, if you've been there five days or more for which you received benefits—you can return home to recuperate and yet not be a burden to your loved ones. If your doctor has you employ a full-time registered nurse within 5 days after you come home, we'll pay you benefits at the rate of $400.00 a month, $13.33 a day. And your benefits continue for the same number of covered days that you were in the hospital—even up to 12 full months.

Double Cash Accident Benefit.

When you and your insured spouse are nospitalized at the same time for an accidental injury, this National Home plan pays each of you DOUBLE CASH. $1,200.00 a month apiece. That's $2,400.00 in cash payments every month (when under age 65) starting the day you enter the hospital for as long as you both remain there.

Waiver of premium benefit.

After 8 continuous weeks of confinement, your premiums that come due are taken care of by National Home. And your protection continues just the same as if you were paying the premiums yourself.

CLAIMS PHILOSOPHY

National Home Life Assurance Company

Our claims philosophy stresses the importance of a prompt and equitable settlement of all claims:

. . . "EXCELLENCE is not only what we wish to achieve, but that to which our policyowners are entitled."

. . . "Our guiding principle is to ask ourselves on each submitted claim, 'Is there any way we can pay this claim?' . . . always give the benefit of the doubt to the policyowner."

. . . "Courtesy is an absolute requirement—the policyowner must have the feeling that he is not a number but, rather, a human being and that we stand ready and willing to assist him in any way we can."

Dear Friend:

You know me. I wouldn't recommend anything I didn't honestly believe in. And I think National Home's $600-a-month plan is just about the best additional protection you can give your family -- especially in these days of rising medical costs.

That's why I'm happy to give this plan my wholehearted endorsement.

I've looked over the policy very carefully. I've made a point of getting to know some of the folks at National Home. And you won't find more decent, friendly people to deal with. I've seen the way they handle claims, too -- quickly and fairly. Believe me, when you need them, they'll be there to help you.

That's why I cannot imagine anybody passing up the chance to enroll in this health plan -- especially when the first month's protection costs only 25¢.

We all know what a terrible thing it is to be hospitalized. But what a relief it is to know there's tax-free cash coming in when you need it most! Take my advice. Send the Enrollment Form now -- before you forget.

Sincerely,
Art Linkletter

65 or over?

You collect benefits in addition to Medicare!

We have designed this plan as a valuable addition to whatever is paid by Medicare—or health insurance you may have with other companies. Regardless of the coverage you already have, National Home pays you at the rate of $300.00 a month ($10.00 a day) for the first 3 months, and $600.00 a month ($20.00 a day) while hospitalized thereafter. Coverage for accidents begins the very first day in the hospital. Sickness coverage begins the sixth day. Both coverages continue for life, if necessary.

These are the only exclusions!

Your National Home policy covers every kind of sickness or accident except conditions caused by: war, or any act of war; any mental disease or disorder; pregnancy, except as provided under the Maternity Benefit provision; and any sickness or injury you had before your policy Effective Date . . . during the first two years only. You are covered for care in any hospital, except a nursing or convalescent facility.

Nationally known and respected.

This is the kind of outstanding protection you may have seen advertised in Reader's Digest, Better Homes & Gardens, TV Guide and other leading publications. The company that stands behind your policy is National Home, established in 1920 and a member of the National Liberty Corporation. One of America's financially strong institutions, we are licensed in 46 states and we pay benefits on an average of ONE MILLION DOLLARS a month to policyowners.

Fast, Reliable Claim Service.

"We were most happy with the prompt way that you sent us the claim forms when requested. Your check for the week my husband was in the hospital was received within ten days. Thank you so much – it really helped in a time of need."
MRS. ROBERT H. ROBINSON, Miami, Fla.

"I took out the policy and had only paid two monthly premiums when I was unexpectedly put in the hospital. Was there 11 days and the National Home Life Assurance Company paid exactly what they had said they would. How happy we were we had taken the policy out."
DEWEY M. FAILOR, Upper Sandusky, Ohio

Why you should mail your Enrollment Form TODAY.

You never know when you or someone in your family will suffer a serious illness or sudden accident. Remember, 80,000 Americans are admitted to a hospital each day. And nobody knows whose turn it is next. Do you really have enough health protection to cover today's soaring hospital and doctor bills? Probably not. That's why it's so important to get this additional $600.00 a month plan. Play it safe, send your form now and you won't be sorry later.

Here are your low rates.

The following chart shows how little it costs after the first month, to cover yourself, your spouse or any adult dependent. We can issue you only one policy of this class. Each adult, 16 or over, pays the rate shown for his or her age.

Age at Enrollment	Monthly Premium per Adult
16-44	only $3.45
45-49	only $4.00
50-54	only $4.40
55-74	only $5.10
75-79	only $5.85
80-84	only $6.50
85 and over	only $7.75

Only $1.80 more per month covers all your unmarried dependent children . . . from the age of 1 month through 18 years. Newborn children are covered automatically at the age of one month—at no additional cost! And then, if you wish, just add $1.35 monthly to that, and you're covered for Maternity Benefits, too!

NOTE: The regular monthly premium shown (for age at time of enrollment) will not automatically increase as you pass from one age bracket to the next. Once you have enrolled in this National Home plan, your rate can not be changed because of how much or how often you collect from us—or because of advanced age—but only if there is a general rate adjustment, on all policies of this class in your entire state.

Act now—"later" may be too late!
Send just 25¢ for first month's coverage.

TIME IS PRECIOUS! Act quickly. (No salesman will call.) Get your Enrollment Form into the mail today—because once you suffer an accident or sickness, it's TOO LATE to get the coverage you need. That's why we urge you to act today—before the unexpected happens.

Money-Back Guarantee

We will send your National Home policy by mail. Examine it carefully. If you decide that you don't want to continue as a member of this plan, return the policy within 15 days of the date you receive it, and we will promptly refund your money.

Reds Take U.S. Fire On Both Sides of DMZ

SAIGON (AP) — Nearly 100 U. S. B52 bombers and a naval task force of more than a dozen cruisers and destroyers blasted North Vietnamese positions on both sides of the demilitarized zone today in some of the heaviest bombardments of the war.

The raids were in support of a 20,000- man South Vietnamese counteroffensive on the northern front. They had the two-fold objective of destroying North Vietnamese troops and supplies already on the battleground and cutting off reinformcements and war materials reportedly moving south.

The Saigon command reported light fighting on the edges of Quang Tri, the provincial capital which fell to the North Vietnamese May 1. It said South Vietnamese paratroopers driving from the East had inched their way to within 200 to 300 yards of the Citadel, the 19th century fortress in the heart of the city.

A dozen B52s struck north of the demilitarized zone on both sides of the port city of Dong Hoi against elements of two North Vietnamese divisions. U. S. military sources said the troops were on the move southward, presumably to join two badly battered divisions in Quang Tri province.

More than 80 giant Stratofortresses struck to the North, West, South and Southwest of Quang Tri city, dropping about 2,500 tons of bombs on North Vietnamese positions.

The U. S. Navy said the destroyer Shelton destroyed nearly 30 North Vietnamese emplacements and triggered 10 secondary explosions in bombardment near Quang Tri city. Other ships of the 13-vessel task force firing from offshore inclued the guided missile cruiser Oklahoma City, flagship of the 7th Fleet, and the destroyer escort Hepburn.

Another task force made up of the destroyers Robison, Hammer, Warrington and Hull bombarded transhipment points and storage areas above the DMZ. the 7th Fleet said the Hull and Robison also destroyed two boatloads of supplies taken off freighters - presumed to be Chinese - at a point southwest of Hon La island, about 30 miles northwest of Dong Hoi. The freighters were not attacked.

The U. S. Command reported that American fighter - bombers flew more than 240 strikes against North Vietnam on Sunday. All of the raids were well below Hanoi in the southern half of the country.

4 Hurt In Area Accidents

The highway patrol reported five automobile accidents occurred in the area on Sunday, leaving four persons injured.

Silas J. Kinder, 75, of Lemay escaped injury when his car was crowded off the road and struck a utility pole on Highway 25 one and one-half miles north of Dutchtown at 8:40 a.m.

At 7:30 a.m. on Route J three miles west of Malden, an auto driven by Walter Weeks, 77, of Lilbourn went out of control and skidded into a bridge railing. Weeks' wife Eula was injured and taken to a Malden clinic.

Joe Leonard Martins, 41, of Poplar Bluff received face and head injuries when his car ran off the road and struck a bridge on Highway 67 four and one-half miles south of Poplar Bluff. The accident occurred at 2:05 a.m. Martins was taken to Veterans Administration Hospital in Poplar Bluff.

Richard Weeks, 36, of Lilbourn received severe facial cuts in a two-car mishap at 1 a.m. Sunday on Highway 61 near Howardville. A convertible driven by Fred Parson, Jr., 24, of St. Louis had slowed to make a turn and was struck in the rear by the Weeks' vehicle.

In another two-car accident, Keith M. Minton, Jr., 22, of Dexter received facial cuts and bruises when the car in which he was a passenger collided head on with a pickup truck.

At 4:15 p.m. on Route ZZ in Stoddard County five miles southwest of Dexter, the pickup, driven by Okle David Swift, 68, of Dexter Route Three, had stopped to make a left turn when Robert Clinton Williams, 23, of Gilmore, Ark., drove his auto over the crest of a hill and hit the truck.

At Child Care Center

Working Mothers Find Help

By BARBARA HARRIS

As many as 40 children of low-income, working parents in the Sikeston area are currently reaping benefits of minimum- cost, quality day care.

February 1972 marked the third birthday for Sikeston's Child Development Center. The center, which has been financed by a variety of organizations, is a non-profit organization now being funded under Title IV of the Social Security Act from the federal Department of Health, Education and Welfare. It is located at 229 Westgate.

The center is operated entirely by a local board of interested citizens and parents and provides enriching educational experiences and developmental training beyond that available in the child's own environment.

Day car includes an unregimented choice of educational play activities; a hot noon dinner and a morning afternoon snacks; art, music and craft supervision; use of all playground equipment and indoor toys; health habits, including an afternoon rest period and medical examination by a doctor and a dentist; special field trips and outings; and daily transportation to and from the center if needed.

Fees charged for daily child care are set up according to national HEW guidelines. These guidelines provide for fees of children who are welfare recipients to be paid by the welfare department. Daily fees of children living in housing projects are paid through an arrangement with Sikeston Housing Authority.

Other children are charged on a sliding fee scale based on income above the Office of Economic Opportunity poverty guidelines. A minimum fee of 50 cents per day for food has been established and the exact amount of the child's fee is determined by an admissions committee when a registration blank is completed.

The center presently has 35 children enrolled, although it is accredited and licensed by the state of Missouri for a maximum enrollment of 40 children. Two rooms of 20 children are maintained with the use of a third multi-purpose room for eating, sleeping and special activities. A rationing of one "teacher" for every five children assures individual attention.

Children may be enrolled for day care by filling out a registration form at the secretary's desk at the Child Development Center. This is located in the southwest wing of Lincoln School. All registration forms are approved by an admissions committee. Priority is given to children of mothers who are employed or in vocational training. Mothers who wish to seek employment may enroll three or four-year-old children for a reasonable period of time while they actively look for a job.

The center is always open for visitation and strongly recommends that parents of prospective enrollees tour the center to see what facilities and services are offered.

Fire Damages Home In New Madrid

NEW MADRID — A fire Saturday at 9 p.m., believed to have been started by lightning, heavily damaged the interior and furnishings of the Robert B. Hedgepeth home at 1314 Davis Street.

The Hedgepeths were away from home, and the fire was discovered by a neighbor, Mrs. Dixie Leonberger.

Firemen were called at 7:50 a.m. today to 620 Russell St. where a pickup truck was on fire. The blaze was quickly extinguished and little damage was reported.

—King To File Suit—

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — State Rep. R.J. "Bus" King said he would file suit with the Missouri Supreme Court today to challenge the qualifications of one of his opponents in the Aug. 8 primary for the Republican nomination for governor, State Auditor Christopher S. "Kit" Bond.

King noted that the Jefferson City Post-Tribune last week reported that Bond had filed an affidavit of residency in Georgia in 1964 to take a bar exam. Bond was working at the time in Atlanta as a clerk in the federal appeals court.

Missouri law requires that a governor must have lived in the state for ten years prior to his election. The same requirement applies for auditor.

Bond, in a statement Sunday, said:

"Gov. (Warren) Hearnes tried unsuccessfully to challenge my residency for auditor. After I was elected the governor and his forces tried everything else they could to thwart our efforts to give citizens of Missouri a thorough, professional audit. Our budget was cut, there were attempts to abolish the office of state auditor and our examiners were harrassed and barred from making certain audits.

"Now, in the closing days of the primary campaign for governor the question is being made again in an abvious attempt to cloud the election issues.

"I am disappointed that Bus King is allowing himself to be used and is going to file suit against me. However, I feel my position is legally sound and I am confident the courts will uphold it."

Driver Arrested On Four Counts

Harold D. King, 824 William Street, was arrested Sunday night for driving without a license, careless and imprudent driving, driving while intoxicated and leaving the scene of an accident.

According to police, King ran his car into a light pole in front of Murray Lane Baptist Church. He drove off without using his lights and was spotted by Officer Bill Smith, who had been called to the scene of the accident.

King drove erratically around town, forcing several cars to swerve to avoid a collision while Smith followed with his flashing light and siren on, unable to make King stop.

Finally King turned onto Branum Street from South West and rammed into another light pole and was overtaken and arrested by Smith. He refused to take a breathalyzer test.

Other arrests included:

Charles William Heavener, 107 North Handy, disorderly conduct, and Paul Daryle Summerfield, 303 Pine in East Prairie, disorderly conduct and curfew violation. Both were arrested after they threw rocks at a passing police car in front of Joker's Lounge at 2005 East Malone.

Agnes L. Cunningham of Bertrand was charged with careless and imprudent driving; Ted X. Spencer, 213 Young, careless and imprudent driving; and Clifford Ray Flippo, 203 South Handy, peace disturbance.

Burlison Poll Indicates

Amnesty For Draft Dodgers Opposed

Fifty-nine per cent of the persons responding to a questionnaire from Rep. Bill D. Burlison of Missouri's 10th Congressional District have indicated that they would refuse amnesty to American boys who have left the country to avoid military service.

Burilison released further tabulations of his questionnaire today and said further releases would be made as tabulated.

A majority of those responding to the questionnaire indicated a preference for a four-year term for U. S. Representative, rather than the two years now provided by law.

Questions and results of today's questionnaire are:

1. American troop levels in Europe should be: reduced, 51 per cent; continued at present level, 38 per cent; increased, four per cent; undecided, seven per cent.

2. With respect to American boys who have left the country to avoid military service: grant amnesty, seven per cent; refuse amnesty, 59 per cent; grant amnesty if certain service conditions are met, 34 per cent; undecided, 10 per cent.

3. Pending are proposals to nominate our presidents just as we do our governors and members of congress; that is, by a direct primary. Are you: for, 82 per cent; against, 14 per cent; undecided, 4 per cent.

4. Pending are proposals to eliminate the electoral college and elect our president by popular vote in the November elections. Are you for, 87 per cent; against, 11 per cent; undecided, two per cent.

5. The term of office for a member of the United States House of Representatives is two years. Do you favor a term of: Two years, 44 per cent; four years, 54 per cent; undecided, two per cent.

ENVELOPING OUR FREEDOMS

"Our defeats far outweigh our successes," said British MP Winston Churchill II, laying it on the line to the graduating class of Westminister College, Fulton, Missouri. Who would have anticipated, asked Churchill, "that the dominant influence in the Middle East today would be Soviet; that there would be more Red Army personnel in Egypt than there were British troops in all of India at the height of the British rule one hundred years ago; that the Soviet fleet would be a force to reckon with in the Mediterranean and the Indian Ocean ... that the Soviet Union would have reached a position of military parity with the United States?" Soviet expansion has "come on us like a thief in the night."

The thief did not come unheralded; 26 years ago at the behest of President Harry S. Truman, Churchill's grandfather and namesake came to Fulton, Mo., the heart of America, to warn that a Soviet "Iron Curtain" threatened to envelope the freedoms of the West. — National Review

According to a world economic service, economic historians will shake their heads in disbelief when they review some of the actions taken in the past years to cope with our national problems. They will find it inconceivable that a nation imposed wage and price controls while, at the same time, running up the biggest deficits in the country's history. Deficit spending and inflation - control programs are just not compatible.

The Brookings Institute, a highly respected research organization, is concerned that government spending has gotten out of hand. In a major study recently released, they stated that, for the first time in American history (except during major wars), government spending -- even without any new programs -- is now rising faster than the growth of revenues from an expanding economy. The study implies that there has been a breakdown in the ability of Congress to cope with the nation's financial problems and virtually accuses Congress of irresponsibility in its lack of control of the nation's pursestrings.

The Brookings report indicated that, without any new programs, and even if the economy were strong and operating with full employment, current spending programs alone will generate a $17 billion deficit for the 1975 fiscal year. In other words, builtin programs have set this nation on the course of spending vastly more money than it takes in over the next three years at least. And relief is nowhere in sight.

Don't forget, this projection does not take into consideration the possibilities of increased spending through expanded medical care programs, increased social security payments, higher defense spending, or rising aid payments to the cities and states.

It is obvious that a curb on government spending is absolutely necessary if inflation is to be brought under control. But we know this is an election year and no candidate in his right mind is going to promise belt-tightening. Relief, then, must be sought in another quarter. This brings us to the other major contributor to inflation -- a rapidly rising money supply. Unfortunately, this picture here looks equally dismal. The Federal "Lack of Reserve," as some economists choose to call them, has been caught up with Incomes Policies. Arthur Burns, the Fed's chairman, apparently believes that Incomes Policies alone are sufficient to curb inflation, so the Fed goes merrily on its way printing up money faster than the consumer can spend it. Apparently the Fed and other economic officials in Washington have forgotten all the bitter lessons learned by the Weimar Republic in Germany. The German administrators then made the same tragic mistake. As inflation increased, they printed up more money to keep up with the demand. And we all know where that road ended.

The United States, if it is to achieve any measurable degree of success in turning inflation around, must have curbs on both deficit spending and the inflationary monetary policies of the Fed. Today, unfortunately, too many members of Congress and the presidential candidates are not helping in this direction.

THE ARITHMETIC OF ZERO POPULATION GROWTH

If you're as puzzled as we are about the scientific projection of when the U.S. will reach Zero Population Growth (ZPD), read on.

The chief reason it will take so long is the high U. S. birth rate in the earlier postwar years. As the calendar has marched on, the baby boom of earlier years has become a young-adult boom -- and that uptrend will last for many years. For example, there were 15.5 million persons in the key child-bearing ages of 20 to 29 in 1970. By 1985 that age group will have grown to 21 million -- a one-third increase.

The predictable result of such an age structure, with larger and larger numbers of potential parents reaching child-bearing age, is a continuing high level of births -- well above the number of deaths -- into the next century. This seems certain even if the fertility rate (an estimate of the number of children the average woman will have in her lifetime, based on current births among women of child-bearing age) should decline from the current level of 2.3 children.

For example, even if couples decide immediately to have, on average, only 2.1 children (the added .1 is needed to take care of premature deaths), official projections of the Census Bureau place the U.S. population in the year 2020 at 307 million, almost 50 per cent higher than today. Such a projection assumes a continuance at present levels of net immigration into the U.S.

So if our calculations are right, it took more than 70 years to reach ZPG in the U.S. even with a two-child family size beginning in 1972 and with a ban on all immigration.

What would it take to bring an immediate halt to U.S. population expansion, to reach ZPG at the current population level of 209 million? Some rather drastic changes, according to the Presidential Commission of Population and the American Future, which was headed by John D. Rockefeller, 3rd.

In its report released in March, the Commission estimated that the birth rate, now 17.3 births per 1,000 population, would have to drop by almost 50 per cent. And today's young generation of parents would have to limit itself to an average of about one child.

There is no chance, most demographers agree, of that happening.

NEW STATISTICS SAY 'REAL' PROFITS LAG

The most significant fact to emerge from a recent change in the manner of presenting official statistics on American corporate profits is that "real" net returns have grown, on average, by less than two per cent annually since 1951. During the same period America's "real" gross national product nearly doubled.

When negotiating wage contracts trade unions never fail to point out that the purchasing power of the dollar declines year after year. And seldom is a wage agreement signed before labor has been "compensated" for this factor, which threatens its standard of living. Governments, dependent on the ballot box, have long recognized this fact. In advanced countries official statistics measuring "real" wages have been long used, taking into account that it is the actual buying power that counts.

Not so in the case of profits. And although statistics on "real" wages have been used for years, it was only recently that it has discovered "real" corporate profits have lagged badly. Quarterly figures will be supplied measuring profits in terms of dollars having the purchasing power of the U.S. dollar in 1958.

Measured against the growth of the real gross national product — i.e. total output of goods and services -- profits are shown to have fallen behind. In real terms, total profit growth since 1951 has only been about 34 percent, while during the past five years it has actually declined rather sharply.

No doubt interesting calculations could be made from the new statistics, which go back to 1945, to determine where the money goes. One fact that is made very clear by these figures is that the often repeated claim that corporations made money during periods of inflation contains little truth. If the worker suffers as a result of inflation, the investor suffers even more, since he cannot go on strike to demand more dollars as compensation for the decline in purchasing power of his interest or dividend.

But the investor has an other choice which is to withdraw his funds from corporations' stocks. Perhaps then labor unions and corporate management would feel the jolt that is needed to bring inflation under control for all concerned.

Candidates for the legislature and state offices today were asked to lend a hand toward securing adoption of Constitutional Amendment No. 1, which will be acted upon in the August primary election. The amendment requires consolidation of the state's 440 separate programs into not more than 14 departments.

Co-chairmen Robert M. White, II, and Dutton Brookfield of the Citizens Committee for State Reorganization told candidates the streamlining proposal gives Missourians the best opportunity in years to bring about basic improvement in state government.

But widespread understanding of the proposal is necessary, if it is to gain voter approval, they said.

They made a plea for candidates to discuss state streamlining in their campaigns.

Many candidates have already spoken for the amendment, they said.

Any not having done so were urged to lend their endorsement.

The pending amendment makes possible a simplified, cleaner state government structure. It limits the state government to 14 departments, in which clear lines of responsibility and authority can be established, they said.

The Committee has developed a brochure explaining the amendment which it sent to the candidates.

GOLDWATER AND ELLSBERG

From The Arizona Daily Star, Tucson...Senator Barry Goldwater of Arizona, meet Daniel Ellsberg of Cambridge, Mass. Despite wide variance in opinions, these two gentlemen now have something in common.

Ellsberg, late of the Rand think tank, spilled the beans by giving copies of the secret Pentagon Papers to the press. Ellsberg's violation of confidentiality has Attorney General John N. Mitchell in full pursuit. Recently, Senator Goldwater violated the secrecy of a White House news briefing. He published in the Congressional Record the transcript of a briefing on India and Pakistan which had been given by Henry Kissinger, the President's advisor. Newsmen who had been invited to the briefing were obligated to withhold the identify of Kissinger. If any newsman had done what the Senator From Arizona did, he and his news organization would have run the risk of being barred from future briefing sessions.

Asked why he made public the name of Kissinger from the confidential briefing, Senator Goldwater said, "I received a hand-delivered envelope from the White House (in reply to a request for information on the India-Pakistan situation). It looked like a typical press handout. To me there was no marking to indicate 'secret' or 'off-the-record.' Besides I don't work that way. Occasionally I'm invited to a secret briefing. I say the hell with it."

Goldwater is a newspaper columnist and his unmasking of Kissinger was an act that could have discredited another newspaperman. But it is certain the Senator will have no problems over the matter; after all, he was only authenticating material favorable to the White House.

Never having studied finance, we aren't able to say what the devalued dollar will mean to American prestige. But we still think, as a man proud of his American citizenship, that we have lost something when the standard of value we once had, is no longer in effect. And certainly the rapidly growing national debt is not going to make other countries respect our economy. Like you and everyone else, we suppose, we don't want to give up anything we are now enjoying from our American citizenship, but as an individual business man we couldn't expect to enjoy much credit if year after year we spent more than we took in.

ON AVOIDING FRICTION

The concept of avoiding friction with the Soviet Union calls for refraining from making ourselves more strong militarily, since doing so would motivate the USSR to increase its military might. The concept calls for competing with the Soviets in friendly fashion and increasing trade, thereby encouraging the people behind the Iron Curtain to seek a better standard of living.

If you wonder what would be necessary to accomplish an equality that would end envy in this standard of living area, here is what Richard M. DeVos, President of Amway Corporation, reported to this sales representatives: we would have to abandon three-fifths of our steel capacity, two-thirds of our petroleum production and 95 per cent of our electric output. We would have to destroy two of every three hydroelectric plants, and use only a tenth of our present volume of natural gas. We would need to tear up 14 of every 15 miles of paved highways, and two of every three miles of railroad tracks. We would have to scrap 19 of every 29 automobiles and trucks, and destroy 40 million television sets. There will be some who think that smashing that many television sets wouldn't be entirely bad, but it all sounds like a distinctly lower standard of living to us.

Detailing our standing in competition with the whole world, Mr. DeVos points out that although we have six percent of the world's population and seven per cent of its land surface, we own 71 per cent of all the automobiles in the world, 56 per cent of all telephones, 60 per cent of all radios, 29 per cent of all railroads, 83 per cent of all television sets, and 90 per cent of all bathtubs. This nation produces 59 percent of the world's steel, 46 per cent of its electric power, 50 per cent of its oil, 56 per cent of its corn, 42 per cent of its cotton, 33 per cent of its coal, 31 per cent of its copper and 38 per cent of its iron.

It occurs to us that a whale of a lot of friction went into accomplishing those production figures—the friction of spirited competition which our system of government encourages.

It might be that if the Soviets were permitted more competitive friction among themselves they would produce more of the things they envy in the free world societies.

NAVY AT WORK

To counter the bruising invasion the communists have launched against South Vietnam, the U.S. Navy has gone to the attack with the dash and vigor that is so characteristic of its tradition. Its cruisers, destroyers and smaller ships have rained deadly fire from their batteries on the ground troops of the communists who are bent on swamping the South Vietnam defenders. The Navy has not come out of the affray without some scars. Ships have been damaged and men killed and wounded. But its deadly firepower has shot up enemy concentrations near the coast with effectiveness.

It was marauding communist patrol boats that attacked a U.S. Navy destroyer back in the 1960s and brought us into open hostilities with the forces of North Vietnam. The incident is still controversial but the Navy is there now to carry out its orders and that is what it has done with efficiency and pride. The great aircraft carriers steaming at sea are constantly contributing to the defense of the South Vietnamese with air strikes.

Russia has studied the effectiveness of seapower as employed by this country and obviously is putting the lessons to work. U.S. intelligence indicates that the Soviets are now building two great cruisers and probably a carrier. When this armed sea might is brought into the diplomatic picture, our margin of security will be reduced. Our Navy needs more ships and more rocket firepower. It is ridiculous to let a traditional landpower such as Russia catch up. The men of the Navy have proved off Vietnam they know how to fight. Let's give them more tools. HLH

MIAMI — When labor's chief of chiefs, George Meany, gets his next honorary degree, it should be as a master of mockery. Those on his political hate list know it. It is true that George McGovern is on it. But so is Richard Nixon. And the thousands of observers who covered the conventions on this littered, helicopter and steel - helmeted protected beachhead should know that Meany set labor's policy and tone for the 1972 election right up the road here some time ago when he told his colleagues:

"McGovern is a louse but Nixon is a bigger one. If we have to beat him with McGovern despite his (McGovern's) policy on the war ... we'll have to back McGovern."

Amidst the heat in and out of Convention Hall besieged by youth, within and without, Meany's mockery of President Nixon has been forgotten by most.

President Nixon doesn't mind Meany's snapping the quip at him -- the White House believes the insults mean votes. But the significance to those labor leaders who heard George lash out at the two men who will be running for President is that the 77- year- old labor leader will make his peace with the Democratic party, slowly but surely, in a "few" months.

The labor chief will not launch an independent labor party. He will not smash the Congressional coalition he has built over the years. He will continue to nudge the party in the direction he wants it to go. He has long warned that it is in the hands of the New Left. He has said he doesn't trust this generation, at least that part of the now crowd which "smokes pot" and "lays around a field up in woodstock." (He has urged them to "join the church" or work in the inner cities.)

It is true that he and those of his veteran colleagues such as the Steel Workers' I. W. Abel dislike the neo- liberal intellectual image of McGovern's followers. It is true that old- line labor leaders spent scores of thousands of dollars here, especially last Monday in a drive to deprive McGovern of those California delegate votes.

It is true that the frustrated labor leaders who have guided the AFL- CIO's political action machinery successfully for decades were embittered on the convention floor when dead silence greeted the mention by Sen. Abe Ribicoff of the late President Kennedy Wednesday night -- or of Roosevelt, Truman and Johnson. Even of Ted Kennedy who Meany thought would head the ticket.

But it is also true that Meany has lunched privately with McGovern in the past, pledged him friendship, promised to support any liberal Democrat except Mayor John Lindsay.

Furthermore, Meany is more than a crafty gin rummy player. The old chieftain has been playing table stakes in the longest floating political crap game in modern Washington.

He lost one roll of the dice to the Teamsters' Frank Fitzsimmons, now possessor of one of few political pass keys to the White House. Stoically he lost a second roll when McGovern's strategists pulled the Auto Workers' leader, 61- year old, six- foot Leonard Woodcock out of national obscurity and into international visibility as a countermove to Meany's thrust for McGovern's campaign jugular.

This Operation Woodcock was a double play against Meany. It not only bolsters Woodcock at home, where he is having great difficulty in his union with the left and the right, but the McGovern ploy adds muscle to Woodcock, in global labor circles long dominated by the AFL- CIO.

In all this it is not tangential to know that, during the Presidential balloting Wednesday night, a "George Wallace for President" placard was hoisted over the Michigan delegation saying that UAW Ford Local 600, biggest in the union, was for the Alabama governor.

Thus Meany isn't about to cut himself off from all sources of Presidential power. His antipathy for McGovern's legions springs not only from his distaste for what he calls their loose morals but also from the fact that he now leads a movement of middle- class workers. So it has been easy for him to warn the Democratic party of ''shambles'' and "disintegration."

But that same sensitivity to the new middle- class labor establishment has led him to respect the influence of new -- and young, by labor's standards -- national union chiefs and their own young and black memberships.

One of those who was most active behind both the labor and McGovern scenes here is the State, County and Municipal Employes' president Jerry Wurf. Long a friend of McGovern's and contributor to McGovern these past few weeks of strategical expertise and infra- structural organizational aid, Wurf has been playing a mediator's role.

Late Wednesday night and right into Thursday morning, Wurf directed the draft-Kennedy campaign -- throwing his young people into the fight, printing literature in the early morning hours, acting as liaison between all forces. There is no doubt that Wurf, with his powerful union's influence in America's black communities now, is one of labor's policymaking national personalities. He is convinced that Meany and the AFL- CIO will back the Democratic party. So are others on the federation's 35-man executive council.

Meany plays all his games with a poker face. He's a man who know his own power. It is still enormous. Make no mistake on this one. His could be the balance of power. He may believe McGovern is a louse. But remember what the curmudgeon said about Dick Nixon. So now we proceed to Act Four.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Jack Anderson

WASHINGTON — Larry O'Brien relaxed from the rigors of running the Democratic convention last week aboard a $200,000 pleasure boat provided by the giant Whittaker Corporation.

The party chairman's corporate hosts even wanted to name the luxury cruiser the "Larry O" in his honor. But O'Brien, not wishing to advertise his free yacht, modestly declined the gesture.

In fact, he sought to avoid attention by sending his security men to board the boat separately. Then, O'Brien and his guests would slip aboard in casual clothes.

He found the yacht a particularly handy retreat to avoid Rev. Ralph Abernathy and his "poor people" who were clamoring at his door. After one encounter with the poor, O'Brien fled to his floating lounge and cooled off with cocktails.

The boat came stocked with $100 worth of free booze, but the brands didn't suit his taste. He frequently sent out for quarts of Beefeater's gin to make his favorite extra-dry martinis. He also insisted on having on board, at all times, three bottles of special vintage wine.

PLUS FURNISHINGS

The yacht, a spanking new Bertram 46, is manufactured by a Miami firm called Bertram Yacht, a division of the Whittaker Corporation. It comes equipped with color television, stereo, plus carpeting, two staterooms with stand-up showers and teakwood paneling.

For a week prior to the convention, O'Brien spent time aboard the yacht every day. Usually, he was accompanied by shapely young secretaries who sipped cocktails with him and sunned in bikinis. For nourishment, they munched on such delicacies as lobster thermidor.

On the evening before the Democratic telethon, O'Brien, his wife and staff celebrated his birthday aboard the yacht with a rack-of-lamb dinner.

A Democratic party spokesman told us the yacht was used "as a floating office." He said O'Brien went aboard to prepare the final draft of his convention speech. All food and liquor, said the spokesman, was paid for by O'Brien.

As a matter of fact, we have documentation that O'Brien paid only for the replenishments after the original stock of liquor had been consumed. He also paid for half of the crew's salary but refused to feed them.

The yacht was arranged by Ron Beasley and Mike Doyle, two suave public relations specialists based in Miami. They had no comment.

GM AWARD

Anyone who doubts that Detroit has control of the government auto safety program should watch what is about to happen at a car safety conference in San Francisco this week.

The conference, sponsored by the Transportation Department, plans to present an automobile safety award to Edward Col, the president of General Motors.

This isn't quite the same as giving an award for crime prevention to a Mafia lord. But, of all car makers, GM has the most scandalous safety record. It is responsible for the notorious Corvair, whose unsafety at any speed launched Ralph Nader to national prominence.

General Motors also holds the world's record for cars recalled because of serious safety defects. In all, it has called back nearly seven million cars.

The latest episode involved the Chevrolet Vega, which GM once labeled "the finest car ever built in America at any price." The company just recalled a half million Vegas because their wheels might fall off.

This is the third recall of Vegas. The other two were for defects that could have caused the cars to burst into flames or fly out of control.

The responsibility for giving the safety award to General Motors belongs to the Transportation Department's National Motor Vehicle Safety Advisory Council, which organized the conference. A look at its membership makes it clear how GM got the award. The council is loaded with auto industry officials. The vice chairman, for example, is Trevor Jones, director of electronic controls systems for none other than General Motors.

MAIL VIOLATION

Every election year brings a flood of abuses of the congressional franking privilege which allows Members of Congress to use the mails free for official business. The usual violation occurs when candidates for re-election use the frank to mail campaign material.

Representative Sam Steiger, R-Ariz., has found a new variation. He is using the frank to benefit a special interest. He recently deluged voters with material furnished him by the National Right to Work Committee, an antiunion lobby.

Navy Finds 43 Flaws In New F14 Fighter

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy found 43 major flaws in test models of its new F14 fighter plane during a preliminary evaluation late last year, according to congressional testimony made public today.

Sixteen of those deficiencies related to safety.

The Navy told a House Appropriations subcommittee that "corrective action is under way" and that a majority of the repaired aircraft would be ready for testing this summer.

This testimony, which also reported 75 minor problems with the F14, came during closed-door budget hearings last April.

An F14 crashed into Chesapeake Bay June 30, killing its civilian test pilot. Navy sources said divers still are recovering pieces of the plane and that cause of the crash has not yet been determined.

The specific problems detected during evaluation flights by Navy pilots last November and December were referred to only sketchily in the April report to the House subcommittee.

But testimony by senior admirals under questioning indicated deficiencies involved engines stalling, difficulty in recovering from spins, and flight range, among other things.

In addition, the congressmen were told that 10 deficiencies were found in the system controlling the Phoenix missile, the F14's principal weapon. Most of these problems, too, will be straightened out, the Navy assured the subcommittee.

The F14 is designed to serve the Navy in fleet air defense and air superiority missions in the late 1970s and the 1980s.

Thieu Enacts Police Laws

SAIGON (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu has put into effect new emergency laws which give his government broad police powers, prohibit demonstrations and strikes, and ban the publication of news or photographs considered detrimental to national security.

The new measures also include a crackdown on violators of curfew hours, give police the authority to raid homes and confiscate materials considered dangerous to national defense, allow for the shooting of lawbreakers, and permit tighter surveillance of those who oppose government policy.

All violations, except those of curfew, have been placed under the jurisdiction of a military court during what Thieu termed a state of war or martial law.

Sentences range from six days to two months for curfew violations and up to two years and a $1,250 fine for strikers.

The new measures were issued Saturday under the law which gives Thieu emergency powers for six months in the fields of economy and national security. They were published Monday by Vietnam Press, the official government news agency.

One Dies In Crane Collapse

KANSAS CITY (AP) — One man was killed and four others were seriously injured today when a crane collapsed and the girder-like object they had been riding fell about 150 feet at the Harry S. Truman Sports Complex.

Names of the men were not immediately released.

Authorities said they fell into a seating area at the complex's football stadium and were pinned beneath the girder-like object, a metal support for a loud speaker system.

Cause of the mishap was not immediately known.

Man Convicted For Israeli Airport Raid

LOD, Israel (AP) — An Israeli army court convicted Japanese radical Kozo Okamoto today for his part in the Lod Airport massacre.

The 24- year- old defendant could get the death penalty for the attack on Israel's international airport May 30 in which 28 persons were killed and 70 were wounded. But the court is expected to sentence him to life imprisonment.

Story Reports Large Scale U.S. Spying

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Government officials have declined comment on a Ramparts magazine article which says U.S. intelligence can pinpoint the location of Soviet military and space craft and monitor every transatlantic telephone call.

The Western White House in San Clemente, Calif., the Department of Defense in Washington and a spokesman for the National Security Agency at Ft. Meade, Md., would not respond to the article entitled "U.S. Espionage: A Memoir." The article, appearing in the August issue of the magazine which went on newstands today, is based on an interview with a man purported to be a former NSA analyst.

The ex-analyst, identified by a spokesman for the magazine as "Winslow Peck,"—a pseudonym—is quoted as saying flights over Russian territory are made routinely by jets "which climb high enough to reach the edge of outer space."

Knowledgeable sources other than the Defense Department denied that U.S. reconnaissance planes fly over Russia.

Contacted in San Diego at a telephone number supplied by Ramparts, a man who said he was "Peck," 26, refused tc give his real name but said he was employed by NSA for 3½ years after enlisting in the Air Force in 1966.

He said he quit because he was disillusioned in Vietnam.

The Ramparts article said the United States monitors every government in the world, including its allies, and listens in on all transatlantic telephone calls to or from this country, even those by private citizens.

"As far as the Soviet Union is concerned we know the whereabouts at any given time of all its aircraft, exclusive of small private planes, and its naval forces, including its missile-firing submarines," the former analyst said in the article.

He said he briefed then-Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey on the Soviet tactical air force in 1967 and once listened to a tearful conversation between Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin and a Russian cosmonaut about to be killed during re-entry.

Maryland Inmates Return To Cells

JESSUP, Md. (AP) — The Maryland House of Corrections remained quiet early today as officials tried to assess the situation at the maximum security prison following a 12-hour riot that left four guards and four inmates injured.

"It was the worst damage I've seen," said Gov. Marvin Mandel, whose agreement to meet with an inmate delegation finally prompted the last few hundred of the rebelling prisoners to return to their cells about 5 a.m. Sunday.

Many fires had erupted sporadically almost from the onset of inmates' rampage. Officials said the trouble began Saturday evening with an escape attempt in the outdoor recreation yard.

Initial estimates of damage ran as high as $1.5 million.

Mandel, after meeting with the inmate delegation, said he would look into some of the grievances. He said there were no demands voiced by the inmates.

Specifically mentioned, the governor said, were the areas of medical service and the classification board, which assigns inmates to the various institutions within the state corrections system.

As of early today there were still no communications within the 1,500-inmate, predominantly black institution.

Italian Winter Fashions Unveiled

ROME (AP) — Italian fashion houses began unveiling their fall-winter collections today with designers trying to entice rather than command.

"There is no longer a hard trend in haute couture," said American-born designer Tiziani, normally one of the pacesetters for the jet-setters.

Despite what he said, Tiziani's style is a classic sportwear look for daytime or evening wear. Coats are looser with modified kimono-type sleeves.

Designers are trying to eliminate such superfluous features as padding, and to keep the lines simple and sober. But they have made up for it in other ways.

Fancy jewelry is an eyecatching feature of many collections.

Also in vogue are the soft cloche hats.

Husband Keeps Track Of Refusals For A Year

Dear Ann Landers: This morning when my neighbor came over for our regular 10 o'clock cup of coffee she had in her hand a letter her husband had brought home from work. He thought it was pretty funny. We wonder how much kidding on the square was involved. Here's the letter, Ann. Please decide:

Dear Loving Wife:

During the past year I have tried to make love to you 365 times. I recorded 229 excuses and 36 successes. I kept track of the reasons which accompanied the refusals. Here they are:

We'll wake the children	17
It's too hot	10
It's too cold	5
I'm too tired	32
It's too early	15
It's too late	23
Please, dear, I'm asleep	35
Windows open, neighbors hear	9
Backache	18
Headache	16
Toothache	2
Drank too much	4
Ate too much	14
Not in the mood	21
Mud pack	2
New Hair-do	17
Company in next room	11
Wouldn't you rather watch the late TV show?	40
Is that all you men think about?	29

Thanks, dear. Your loving Husband (But Not Enough)

How about it, Ann. Is it funny? --Paradise, Calif.

Dear Paradise: Yes, it's funny, but like a great deal that passes for humor, I sense a lot of kidding on the square.

Dear Ann Landers: Since your column appears in the Rapid City Journal we feel that you are a member of our community. Will you please give us a hand? As you know, the people in Rapid City are trying hard to recover from the worst disaster ever experienced in this ten-state area. Almost every family in town has lost relatives, friends, property and possessions not covered by insurance.

The major industry in the Black Hills is the tourist business. Almost all our local people are dependent, either directly or indirectly, on the tourists who visit Mt. Rushmore and the Black Hills in July and August. If the tourists stay away, the financial impact of the flood will be multiplied many times.

The people of western South Dakota are more interested in having an opportunity to continue earning a living than in receiving massive doses of federal aid. Please, Ann, tell the world that the Black Hills are as beautiful as ever. None of the major tourist attractions was damaged by the flood. Fewer than one percent of the motels, resorts and campgrounds were in the flood area. Tourists will also find the local people as friendly and helpful as in the past. --J.W.H., President, National College of Business.

Dear J.W.H. I have visited in Rapid City and loved it. Here is your letter with an added word from me to all of you who have never been there. Go this summer if you haven't been. You'll have the time of your life -- and the community needs the money.

Is alcoholism ruining your life? Know the danger signals and what to do. Read the booklet, "Alcoholism -- Hope And Help," by Ann Landers.

Dr. Reuter On Committee For Handicapped Children

HOWARDVILLE — Dr. George S. Reuter Jr., superintendent of schools of New Madrid County R-1 enlarged district, is a member of a committee of school administrators who have been asked to meet in Jefferson City Wednesday by Dr. Arthur L. Mallory, state commissioner of education.

The committee will discuss how to coordinate efforts of the state department of education and the school districts in providing new programs for handicapped children during the 1972-73 school year.

Dr. Mallory has urged school districts "to concentrate their efforts to meet unmet needs" so that "meaningful educational experiences will be provided for all children and youth." Dr. Mallory urged school districts to consider the following approaches:

(1) House Bill 1096, which provides that a county, or two or more counties, may create a special district to provide instruction for handicapped children and vocational education classes for all under the age of 21.

(2) Section 178.260, RSMo., provides that school districts may establish special classes by contracting with nearby districts for the education of such children.

(3) The attorney general has ruled that districts may provide for preschool program out of funds other than state aid.

(4) The law directing county superintendents to complete an annual census of the handicapped is no longer effective.

Looking Back

Tooth Infection Fatal

50 years ago
July 17, 1922
One of the saddest deaths that has occurred for some time was that of Mrs. Maude McCoy, wife of Lou Mc Coy, which occurred Friday at the Mullanphy Hospital in St. Louis. Some years ago she had a wisdom tooth extracted and a small lump formed on the gums where the tooth came out, but no particular attention was given it. Supposing that it would soon be absorbed. Instead, in recent weeks, an infection began and she was taken to the hospital where an operation was performed. It was believed she would soon be able to return to her home and be in good health, but a reaction set in and she passed away suddenly from a blood clot of the heart.

Mrs. Green Lescher, who has been the guest of Judge and Mrs. Lescher for the past few days, returned to her home in St. Louis Sunday.

The funeral of Miss Iva Kinsolving, aged 23 years, who died at her home, one mile northeast of Sikeston, last Friday, took place at the family residence Sunday

Mrs. Eva Kasinger, wife of S.R. Kasinger, died at her home in Sikeston Friday last, of acute nephritis at the age of 45 years.

One of the most unique of the many fish ponds in the city, has recently been finished by R. H. Wagner, his sons and two or three non-professional assistants. The pool located in the south corner of the back yard "living room" on Moore avenue, is built in the shape of a fish. It even boasts an albino eye.

David Blanton was able to return home from the Emergency Hospital Wednesday at noon. He is pretty weak, but his throat has healed smooth and Dr. Kendig thinks he will soon be as good as new. The family feel thankful that a load of worry and sadness has been lifted from our hearts.

Canalou -- Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Percy left Sunday for Bloomington, Ill., where they will visit relatives and friends.

Mrs. Alice Hammond, born in Crittenden County, Ky., September 12, 1857, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Louis Barnes near Sikeston Thursday at the age of 74 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Kemper a Bruton of Blytheville, Ark., are parents of a son born at the Kennett hospital Tuesday. The child has been named William Kemper, jr. He is the grandson of Mrs. C.F. Burton of this city.

Sikeston General Hospital. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Homer Decker of Route 3, Wednesday.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Leon Kneezle of Morley Wednesday.

"I will go to the king. . . ; and if I perish, I perish." "Esther 4:16, RSV)

What's The Law?
The Case Of The Vanishing Preacher

By Jack Strauss, LL. B.

The Rev. Jones took his text and preached from it, far from it. While presiding over a cemetery burial, he suddenly vanished from sight into an empty grave when he slipped on a fake grass mat. It had been placed over an adjacent memorial slab by the undertaker for the purpose of giving the cemetery a tidier appearance. Fortunately, the minister's absence produced an immediate search. And, in short order, he was found and hoisted from his untimely grave. Dripping from mud, the soft spoken but irate minster sued the undertaker for his injuries.

"He was careless in not providing a safe site for the burial," he complained in court. "While it was my job to lead the deceased to heaven, it was not my job to follow him there."

"It rained earlier in the day and everything was wet and slippery, responded the undertaker. "Consequently, I can't be held responsible for what happened. The rain was an act of God and, as a minister, the Rev. Jones should know better than to try to blame me for God's doing."

IF YOU WERE THE JUDGE, would you hold the undertaker accountable for the sudden disappearance of the Rev. Jones?

This is how the judge ruled: YES! The judge held that an undertaker, or the person charged with the responsibility, if it is someone else, must take proper steps to see to it that a grave site is reasonably safe. Or, at least, concluded the judge, he must warn those attending the funeral of any hazards that might exist. (Based upon a 1964 Louisiana Court of Appeals Decision)

Cline Favors Little Hoover Proposal

C. F. Cline, democratic candidate for state representative in the new 159th District, has endorsed the "Little Hoover" Commission recommendation for reorganization of the executive branch of state government.

In a statement issued by his campaign headquarters, Cline stated:

"The present executive branch in Missouri has 87 various units reporting directly to the governor. In the newly proposed executive structure, the number of state departments will be limited to 14.

"This will not only streamline and simplify the business of running the state, it will also save taxpayers millions of dollars every year. I highly recommend that people in the 159th District vote "yes" on Amendment No. 1.

Firemen were called at 3 p.m. Saturday to Sikeston Activity Center at 201 South Kingshighway where a cooling unit on an air-conditioner had reptured and sent freon gas billowing through the building.

Pirates Cool Astros In Twinbill

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

"We hit the ball and they caught it," said Lee May of the Houston Astros. "They hit the ball and it was in the hole. That's baseball."

No, that's the Pittsburgh Pirates. The Pirates use the home field advantage as well as any team in the National League—and Sunday turned it to their advantage again.

Base hits whistled through the infield on the hard, artificial surface at Three Rivers Stadium and the Pirates literally ran off with a pair of 3-2 victories over the Astros.

"I've never seen so many ground balls shoot through like they do for the Pirates," said Houston Manager Harry Walker. "Manny Sanguillen hits that ball on the ground and—boom— it's gone."

The Pirates killed two birds with the double triumph. For one thing, the East leaders moved 4½ games up on the second-place New York Mets, who lost a 7-3 decision to the San Diego Padres. For another, they dropped the Astros five games behind Cincinnati in the West after the Reds beat the St. Louis Cardinals 4-1.

Elsewhere in the National League, the Los Angeles Dodgers cut down the Montreal Expos 4-2; the San Francisco Giants defeated the Philadelphia Phillies 10-7 and the Chicago Cubs downed the Atlanta Braves 5-3.

In the American League, the Oakland A's tripped the New York Yankees 5-2; the Detroit Tigers turned back the Kansas City Royals 2-0; the Boston Red Sox walloped the Minnesota Twins 6-1; the Baltimore Orioles defeated the Chicago White Sox 6-1 in the first game of a doubleheader cut short in the seventh inning by rain; the California Angels blanked the Milwaukee Brewers 1-0 in the first game of a twin bill before losing the second, 2-1 and Texas edged Cleveland 3-2 in 12 innings.

The Pirates' first-game victory was fashioned with the help of speed, combined with that Tartan-Turf surface. The contest was tied 2-2 when Willie Stargell opened the 10th inning with a walk. Stargell raced to third when Sanguillen rifled a sharp single through the infield.

After Rennie Stennett was walked intentionally to load the bases, Bob Robertson was struck on the right wrist with a Fred Gladding pitch, forcing in the winning run.

In the second game, the Pirates took a 1-0 lead with an unearned run in the first inning—then used that tailormade combination of speed and playing-surface again to build their lead.

The Pirates scored their eventual winning runs off Houston's Don Wilson in the fourth when Al Oliver singled and scored on Stargell's double. Stennett then drilled a ball through the Astro infielders for a run-scoring single.

Bruce Kison got the secondgame victory with last-out relief help from Dave Giusti, who nailed it down after giving up a two-run single to May.

Throwing errors by pitchers Jerry Koosman and Danny Frisella helped San Diego break a tie with four runs in the seventh inning as San Diego defeated New York.

The Padres tied the game 3-3 on Enzo Hernandez' two-run single in the sixth inning.

Bobby Tolan hit a tie-breaking home run, then doubled and scored again as Cincinnati took St. Louis behind Jack Billingham's eight-hitter. The Reds' victory was their sixth straight, boosting their front-running lead to its biggest of the year.

Bill Buckner ripped a two-run triple to highlight a four-run first inning and Don Sutton scattered seven hits to lead Los Angeles.

Manager's Strategy Works

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

When you're hot, you're hot and when you're not, you're probably the Milwaukee Brewers.

The baseball Brewers were stuck in one of their cold spells Sunday—six losses in eight games including a 1-0 two-hitter at the hands of California's Rudy May in the first game of their doubleheader.

What's worse is that the second game was also 1-0 in California's favor as Milwaukee came to bat in the bottom of the eighth inning. The Brewers weren't cold—they were frozen.

Clearly, it was time for action and so Manager Del Crandall used his old pinch runner for a pinch runner move.

The double pinch runner strat gy paid off—helped considerably by George Scott's two-run single—as the Brewers rallied for a 2-1 victory and a split of the doubleheader.

Elsewhere in the American League Sunday, Oakland rapped New York 5-2, Detroit shut out Kansas City 2-0, Bostono whipped Minnesota 6-1, Texas defeated Cleveland 3-2 in 12 innings and Baltimore downed Chicago 6-1 in the rain-abbreviated first game of a scheduled doubleheader. The nightcap was washed out.

In the National League, Pittsburgh swept a doubleheader from Houston, 3-2 in both games, Chicago dropped Atlanta 5-3, Cincinnati took St. Louis 4-1, San Francisco ripped Philadelphia 10-7, San Diego dropped New York 7-3 and Los Angeles trimmed Montreal 4-2.

Starter Lloyd Allen and reliever Rick Clark had limited the Brewers to just four hits in the nightcap when pinch hitter Ron Theobald opened the eighth inning with a single. Here Crandall started working. Pinch Runner Number One.

"When the first guy up in the inning singled, I didn't want to use a player we might need later, so I sent in pitcher Skip Lockwood," Crandall explained.

The situation cried for a bunt and Rick Auerbach delivered it. What's more, Auerbach beat it out. And here comes Pinch Runner Number Two, not for Auerbach, but for Lockwood.

"We get men on first and second and this is or chance to win the ball game," said Crandall, "so I sacrifice a little speed at second base for experience by sending in Bob Heise to run for Lockwood."

Brock Davis followed with another bunt single and Scott delivered with his game-winning two-run single.

Questioned about the double pinch runner strategy move afterwards, Crandall shrugged it off, saying, "it worked pretty good, that's all I know."

Playoffs Begin

Two games are scheduled for tonight's first round in the District 3 Junior Babe Ruth baseball tournament at V.F.W. Stadium. Tri-County and New Madrid open the double - elimination tourney at 7 p.m. A 9 p.m. nightcap follows between Chaffee and Charleston.

East Prairie and defending district and state winner Sikeston move into play when they meet tonight's winners in games scheduled for Tuesday night.

The winner of the six-team double - elimination meet will advance into state play, slated July 26-29 at Joplin. The Missouri champ will advance into regional play in Fargo, N.D., Aug. 8-13. The regional winner advances into the world series at Pine Bluff, Ark., Aug. 19-26.

Moving into the tournament as defending District champion, the Sikeston age 13-15 All-Star unit will be managed by Leonard Campbell and coached by Paul Luber and Jimmy Turner. All but a few of the boys that were on last year's team, which won district and state titles to move into regional play at Belle Plains, Minn., have moved out of the Junior Babe Ruth League. A new set of athletes fills the Sikeston lineup that moved into play Tuesday in defense of district and state crowns.

Reds Sweep Card Series

ST. LOUIS (AP) — "It's too hot to go nine innings," Cincinnati pitcher Jack Billingham said just before taking the mound against the Cardinals Sunday afternoon.

"I started looking toward the bull pen about the seventh inning. My arm still felt good, but my body was dead. I threw some pitches in the eighth and ninth innings that I didn't know I had left in me," he said.

"I was falling behind on every hitter and just coming in with fast balls, but I was lucky that the Cardinals were hitting the ball right at someone."

It may sound like the story of the losing pitcher. But Billimgham (6-9) went the route and won it 4-1, his third straight complete game and his fourth of the season.

Ex-Cardinal Bobby Tolan provided a homer and a double to pace the Reds to their sixth consecutive win, sweeping the three-game series with the Cards.

Darrel Chaney doubled to open the Reds third inning, came around on a sacrifice bunt and scored on an infield out. The Cards tied it in their half of the frame with a double by Ed Crosby and a single by Matty Alou.

Tolan smacked the homer in the fourth and in the sixth doubled, scoring on Toney Perez' single to right. The Reds got their final run in the eighth when Johnny Bench doubled, moved to third on a wild pitch and scored on Dennis Menke's bunt.

Reds Manager Sparky Anderson said the Cards rookie pitcher Don Durham "looked pretty good out there. He was tough and should do well for the Cardinals."

Durham was in his first starting assignment, having been called up last week from Tulsa. The 23-year-old righthander gave up three runs in seven innings and struck out six.

Red Schoendienst, Cardinal manager, said of Durham, "I'll put him in the regular rotation after the All-Star break. He'll be my fourth starter. He pitched well and he's going to get better. We just couldn't get a break for him."

Sikeston Stars Win In 13th

Everyone knows that if you want something done right, you have to put a lot of hard work into it. Nothing less than hard work, from both the individual and team level paid off Sunday in the second of three playoff games scheduled at V.F.W. Stadium between the district championship - seeking Sikeston All-Stars and the visiting SeMo All-Stars.

With their backs against the wall and already one game down in the best of three, rain delayed district playoff, the Sikeston Senior Babe Ruth All-Stars came through with a 3-2 marathon win in 13 innings.

Behind the long arm of Eddie McDowell and a timely 13th - inning game - winning single by John Leible, the Sikeston squad knotted the three game playoff, 1-1, and moved the final championship tilt into a noon showdown today.

Only after several hours of work from the makeshift ground crew at V.F.W. Stadium, (calling on recruits from the Sikeston players and those individually concerned with getting the rain-soaked, puddle-spotted infield into playing shape) did the two Southeast Missouri all-star units settle down to the 13- inning, hard-fought duel.

It was a combination of hard work that made the game possible and a lot of gutsy work that kept the contest rolling through four hours of Sunday afternoon heat which blanketed the 13-inning battle.

Sikeston's hard throwing, left - hander Eddie McDowell went the distance for the win, fanning 17 SeMo batters and giving up only three hits in the 13-inning game. Leible, the Sikeston catcher, blasted his game-winning single into center field with one out in the 13th frame to send Greg Colwick home with the winning run from second base. Colwick reached base on a single, stole second and was followed by a walk by Rick Dyer before Leible's winning blast ended the contest.

The SeMo All-Stars — made up of players from Lilbourn, New Madrid, East Prairie and Bertrand — after trailing 2-0 in the early innings of play knotted the score at 2- all with two runs in the top half of the fourth inning and settled down to what turned out to be nine remaining innings of play.

Tim Bard opened on the mound for the visiting SeMo All-Star crew and worked four innings before giving way to Bill St. Mary, — who followed with five innings of work. Bard was tagged with the first two runs while reliever Pat McClarty worked the final hour innings and was on the mound in the decisive 13th inning.

Sikeston threated to score in the 10th inning as pinch - hitter Jim Saulters unloaded a leadoff double and was out at home trying to score on a fielders choice that followed from Bryan Montgomery. Montgomery was also tagged out at home in an attempt to score as a walk and another fielders choice sent him in for the attempted tie-breaker.

McDowell worked the final six innings against SeMo batsmen without a giving up a hit. A play at the plate picked up the third out in the eight inning as catcher Leible tagged out SeMo shortsop Grant Damach, trying to score from third on a passed ball.

The winner of today's battle will advance into play in the state tournament starting Wednesday at Jefferson City. Friday night the SeMo Stars tagged the Sikeston stars in a 16-1 runaway contest for the first round triumph. Saturday's games were cancelled as rains pushed the game into Sunday's contest. Two games were scheduled for Sunday, but the length of the first game sent the team's into today's final game.

Rupp to Head ABA's New Tams

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Former University of Kentucky basketball coach Adolph Rupp, the new president of the Memphis Tams of the American Basketball Association, says all the franchise needs is development by people with imagination.

Rupp, 70, was named Saturday to the position by Charles O. Finley, a Chicago millionaire and sports promoter who officially acquired the team July 6. Rupp retired at Kentucky this summer after amassing the most victories in college basetball history.

"This thing (Memphis) has hit bottom and the main thing now is to bail it out," Rupp said from his home in Lexington, Ky. "All it needs is development by people with imagination."

Rupp said he would be responsible only to Finley "and that will be only if I should make a flop of the thing."

Finley said from Chicago that Rupp has accepted a three-year contract, but declined to disclose terms.

Finley, who also owns four hockey and baseball franchises, took an instant dislike to the old name of his Memphis property, the Pros, and conducted a $2,500 contest to re-name the club.

for complete accidental loss of limbs or eyesight. If you suffer complete loss of a hand or foot or the sight of an eye within 90 days of the accident, you collect $1,000.00 — and $2,000.00 for the loss of two limbs or the sight of both eyes.

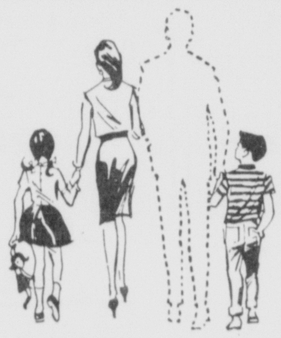
$2,400.00 a month cash

$1,200.00 a month for you—and $1,200.00 a month for your spouse... when an accident hospitalizes covered husband and wife at the same time. Yes, you collect $2,400.00 A MONTH in all (when under 65) while both are in the hospital—even for life.

We pay all premiums

that come due for you and all covered members of your family should you — the policyowner—be hospitalized for eight consecutive weeks or more. And you don't have to pay us back.

We guarantee not to cancel your protection no matter how many claims you have ... or how old you become ... or for any reason whatsoever. Only you can cancel.



We guarantee not to raise your low rates because of how old you become ... or how many claims you have ... but only if there is a general rate adjustment on all policies of this class in your entire state.

NO AGE LIMIT • NO SALESMAN OR AGENT WILL CALL

OVER 30 million people will be admitted to a hospital this year! It could be you—or some beloved member of your family—tomorrow ... next week ... next month. Sad to say, very few families have anywhere near enough coverage to meet today's soaring hospital costs. These costs have more than doubled in just a few short years.

Stop for a moment. Think how much a long stay in the hospital will cost you or a loved one. How would you ever pay for costly, but necessary, X-rays, doctor bills, drugs and medicines? What would you do if your pay check stopped, but living expenses kept going on the same as ever? The same rent, phone, food, all the day-to-day expenses that never stop.

What is the average breadwinner to do? We believe we have the answer in this National Home plan.

Pays you up to $600.00 a month tax-free cash when you are hospitalized.

Now you can have $600.00 cash coming in every month—$20.00 a day—beginning the very first day you enter the hospital due to an accident, and the sixth day for confinements due to sickness. You collect $600.00 a month, even for life, if necessary.

The cash is paid directly to you in addition to whatever you may receive from your insurance with any other companies. Use the money as you see fit—for hospital or doctors' bills. To replace savings or cover household expenses. Every dollar is tax-free.

How much does $600.00 a month protection cost you? Only 25¢ covers you and your entire family for the first month. After that you may continue at our regular low rates.

Pays you $360.00 a month cash when any unmarried dependent child is hospitalized.

When you choose Coverage for Children, this National Home plan pays you at the rate of $360.00 a month cash, $12.00 a day, when one of your children is hospitalized. Pays for as long as necessary! Children are covered for accidents from the first day and for sickness from the sixth day.

Pays you at the rate of $600.00 a month for Maternity Benefits!

If both husband and wife are insured for the entire period of pregnancy (and have added Coverage for Children and Maternity Benefits), you get tax-free cash to use any way you want. Yes, if a pregnancy, childbirth or even miscarriage puts you in the hospital for one day, five days, ten days—as long as necessary—you get cash benefits of $20.00 a day for every day of your confinement.

Pays you $400.00 a month cash for a Registered Nurse at Home.

How comforting it is to know that—after your stay in the hospital, if you've been there five days or more for which you received benefits—you can return home to recuperate and yet not be a burden to your loved ones. If your doctor has you employ a full-time registered nurse within 5 days after you come home, we'll pay you benefits at the rate of $400.00 a month, $13.33 a day. And your benefits continue for the same number of covered days that you were in the hospital—even up to 12 full months.

Double Cash Accident Benefit.

When you and your insured spouse are nospitalized at the same time for an accidental injury, this National Home plan pays each of you DOUBLE CASH. $1,200.00 a month apiece. That's $2,400.00 in cash payments every month (when under age 65) starting the day you enter the hospital for as long as you both remain there.

Waiver of premium benefit.

After 8 continuous weeks of confinement, your premiums that come due are taken care of by National Home. And your protection continues just the same as if you were paying the premiums yourself.

CLAIMS PHILOSOPHY — National Home Life Assurance Company

Our claims philosophy stresses the importance of a prompt and equitable settlement of all claims:

..."EXCELLENCE is not only what we wish to achieve, but that to which our policyowners are entitled."

..."Our guiding principle is to ask ourselves on each submitted claim, 'Is there any way we can pay this claim?' ... always give the benefit of the doubt to the policyowner."

..."Courtesy is an absolute requirement—the policyowner must have the feeling that he is not a number but, rather, a human being and that we stand ready and willing to assist him in any way we can."

Dear Friend:

You know me. I wouldn't recommend anything I didn't honestly believe in. And I think National Home's $600-a-month plan is just about the best additional protection you can give your family -- especially in these days of rising medical costs.

That's why I'm happy to give this plan my wholehearted endorsement.

I've looked over the policy very carefully. I've made a point of getting to know some of the folks at National Home. And you won't find more decent, friendly people to deal with. I've seen the way they handle claims, too -- quickly and fairly. Believe me, when you need them, they'll be there to help you.

That's why I cannot imagine anybody passing up the chance to enroll in this health plan -- especially when the first month's protection costs only 25¢.

We all know what a terrible thing it is to be hospitalized. But what a relief it is to know there's tax-free cash coming in when you need it most! Take my advice. Send the Enrollment Form now -- before you forget.

Sincerely,
Art Linkletter

65 or over?

You collect benefits in addition to Medicare!

We have designed this plan as a valuable addition to whatever is paid by Medicare—or health insurance you may have with other companies. Regardless of the coverage you already have, National Home pays you at the rate of $300.00 a month ($10.00 a day) for the first 3 months, and $600.00 a month ($20.00 a day) while hospitalized thereafter. Coverage for accidents begins the very first day in the hospital. Sickness coverage begins the sixth day. Both coverages continue for life, if necessary.

These are the only exclusions!

Your National Home policy covers every kind of sickness or accident except conditions caused by: war, or any act of war; any mental disease or disorder; pregnancy, except as provided under the Maternity Benefit provision; and any sickness or injury you had before your policy Effective Date ... during the first two years only. You are covered for care in any hospital, except a nursing or convalescent facility.

Nationally known and respected.

This is the kind of outstanding protection you may have seen advertised in Reader's Digest, Better Homes & Gardens, TV Guide and other leading publications. The company that stands behind your policy is National Home, established in 1920 and a member of the National Liberty Corporation. One of America's financially strong institutions, we are licensed in 46 states and we pay benefits on an average of ONE MILLION DOLLARS a month to policyowners.

Fast, Reliable Claim Service.

"We were most happy with the prompt way that you sent us the claim forms when requested. Your check for the week my husband was in the hospital was received within ten days. Thank you so much—it really helped in a time of need."
MRS. ROBERT H. ROBINSON, Miami, Fla.

"I took out the policy and had only paid two monthly premiums when I was unexpectedly put in the hospital. Was there 11 days and the National Home Life Assurance Company paid exactly what they had said they would. How happy we were we had taken the policy out."
DEWEY M. FAILOR, Upper Sandusky, Ohio

Why you should mail your Enrollment Form TODAY.

You never know when you or someone in your family will suffer a serious illness or sudden accident. Remember, 80,000 Americans are admitted to a hospital each day. And nobody knows whose turn it is next. Do you really have enough health protection to cover today's soaring hospital and doctor bills? Probably not. That's why it's so important to get this additional $600.00 a month plan. Play it safe, send your form now and you won't be sorry later.

Here are your low rates.

The following chart shows how little it costs after the first month, to cover yourself, your spouse or any adult dependent. We can issue you only one policy of this class. Each adult, 16 or over, pays the rate shown for his or her age.

Age at Enrollment	Monthly Premium per Adult
16-44	only $3.45
45-49	only $4.00
50-54	only $4.40
55-74	only $5.10
75-79	only $5.85
80-84	only $6.50
85 and over	only $7.75

Only $1.80 more per month covers all your unmarried dependent children ... from the age of 1 month through 18 years. Newborn children are covered automatically at the age of one month—at no additional cost! And then, if you wish, just add $1.35 monthly to that, and you're covered for Maternity Benefits, too!

NOTE: The regular monthly premium shown (for age at time of enrollment) will not automatically increase as you pass from one age bracket to the next. Once you have enrolled in this National Home plan, your rate can not be changed because of how much or how often you collect from us—or because of advanced age—but only if there is a general rate adjustment, on all policies of this class in your entire state.

Act now—"later" may be too late! Send just 25¢ for first month's coverage.

TIME IS PRECIOUS! Act quickly. (No salesman will call.) Get your Enrollment Form into the mail today—because once you suffer an accident or sickness, it's TOO LATE to get the coverage you need. That's why we urge you to act today—before the unexpected happens.

Money-Back Guarantee

We will send your National Home policy by mail. Examine it carefully. If you decide that you don't want to continue as a member of this plan, return the policy within 15 days of the date you receive it, and we will promptly refund your money.
